SOUTHERN LAWLESSNESS.

Judge Lynch's Court in Louisiana.

A Man Shot and a Woman Hung.

CLINTON, October 14.—The posse in charge of Gair, and conducting him from Baton Rouge to Clinton, were overpowered last night, eleven miles from here, by seventy armed and masked men, their arms taken from them, and Gair, who had Dr. J. N. Saunders poisoned, was shot to death. The same night "Babe" Mathews, the negro woman who administered the poison for Gair, was taken from the guards by an armed body and hung to a tree in the court-yard. All is now quiet. The negroes consider it a just retribution for the crimes of these dangerous negroes.

Another Account.

NEW ORLEANS, October 14.—The following telegram was received this afternoon:

BATON ROUGE, La., October 14.—Governor C. C. Antoine, New Orleans: John Gair, arrested here yesterday by legal warrant, and by Deputy Sheriff Woodward, of East Feliciana, charged as accessory before the fact of poisoning J. W. Saunders, was taken from this city at 2 P. M. by a Deputy Sheriff and a posse towards Clinton. Reports here say John Gair was shot to death on the road and his sister-in-law hung in the court house square there. Mrs. Gair is here and not disturbed.

(Signed) HENRY SCHORTEM, Mayor.

Later.

The following is the Associated Press report received at 8 P. M.:

CLINTON, LA., October 14.—On the evening of the 11th Dr. Saunders, of this place, was poisoned with a solution of arsenic in a dipper and bucket of water, administered by one Catherine Mathews, sister-in-law of John Gair. When arrested, she confessed her guilt, and said John Gair and Robert Ray instigated her to the act. The Deputy Sheriff and posse arrested John Gair in Baton Rouge, under a warrant from the authorities of the parish, and started to bring him to Clinton. About night they were met by a body of fifty or more armed men, who took from the deputy and posse their arms, and took possession of Gair and sent the posse on to Clinton. It is said Gair was killed by the men who took him from the Deputy Sheriff, and the same body of men or others came into the town and hung the woman. It is the opinion of the entire community that the poisoning was done by the woman, and Gair and Ray instigated her to the act.

SOLDIERS' REUNION.

Gathering of Veterans at Indianapolis—A Tumult of Patriotic Excitement—Scenes of 1861 Revived—A Free Dinner to the Boys by the Ladies—50,000 Men at Camp Morton—Speeches, Etc.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 14.—The Soldiers' reunion is an immense success. The city is literally jammed with people from all parts of the State. Camp Morton looks very much as it did in 1861. The city is in a tumult of patriotic excitement. Flags and banners are streaming from thousands of windows and house tops, and from every side the clans are marched in battalions for the common rendezvous at Camp Morton. Hundreds of tents have been put on the State fair grounds, and the Exposition building has been turned into barracks, one-half of the lower floor being reserved for dining purposes and the balance for speech-making and sleeping. The ladies from the city gave the boys a free dinner, the material for which had been gathered by solicitation from the several wards. It is estimated that fully 50,000 men are on the camp grounds. The programme for this afternoon opened with "Tramp, tramp" by the Choral Union under the direction of Prof. Black, prayer by Chaplain Stevenson, and an address by the presiding officer, Gen. Tom Brown, which was followed by a roll call of regiments, each command grouping about its old colors.

During the afternoon, at the several stands, speeches were made by Leas D. Coffin, of Bowling Green, C. C. Matson, of Green Castle, W. E. Davis, of Sullivan, H. B. Higgenbotham, of Lafayette, R. P. Dehart, of Lafayette, W. S. Congleton, of Decatur, and Maj. Gordon, of this city. The commander, Col. John R. Mahan, has announced the following programme for to-morrow: 6 A. M. reveille; 6.30, roll call; 7, breakfast; 8, companies and regiments will be formed by their respective officers for the grand parade and review. Previous to moving a regulation flag will be presented to the county outside of Marion sending the largest organized delegation, by Henry B. Sayler, of Huntington; 9, movement of the column under the command of the grand marshal, Gen. Dan McCauley. After marching through several of the principal streets the column will halt at the State House grounds, where the exercises will conclude with a welcome address by Senator Morton, responses by Gen. Walter Q. Gresham, report and address of the Committee on Monument by its chairman, Gen. John Coburn, report of the Committee on Resolutions, introduction of and speeches by distinguished visitors, and benediction.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 14, 1875.

Tweedism.

Judge Lawrence, of the Supreme Court, has denied the motion for a stay in the suit against Tweed, holding that the orders of the general term, which it is proposed to appeal from, are not applicable, being entirely discretionary with the Court.

A False Statement Corrected.

Gen. George H. Sharpe, Surveyor of Customs at this port, corrects the statement recently published to the effect that on the occasion of the late return of Secretary Bristow's family from Europe eighteen of their trunks were taken off the steamer at a point down the bay by a revenue cutter and brought directly to New York, and landed without being subjected to an examination. The Surveyor says the revenue cutter did not take any person or any article of baggage from the steamer. No baggage left the steamer by any other vessel. Mrs. Bristow had four trunks and four small packages, and they were examined on the deck the same as the property of other passengers. Mrs. Bristow made a declaration under oath of the contents of her baggage, stating that some of the personal attire was new, and upon it the duties were paid.

Peace Address.

The Peace Union was addressed last night by Commissioner Meacham, Judge Westbrook, John W. Browning and others, and adopted a resolution demanding Congressional investigation of our Indian troubles. A mass meeting will be held on the subject at an early day.

Business Failures.

Asher & Redlich, dealers in lace goods, have suspended; also Fay & Co., dealers in hats and caps. The liabilities are not very large.

OUT-DOOR SPORTS.

Jerome Park (New York) Races.

NEW YORK, October 14.—First race, all ages, 1 mile; won by Leander. Time 1,46¼.

Second race, 1¼ miles; won by Shylock. Time 2:46¼.

Third race, dash of 4 miles; won by Aaron Pennington. Time 7:42.

Fourth race, free handicap sweepstakes, 1¼ miles; won by Rhodamanthus. Time 2:01.

Point Breeze Races.

PHILADELPHIA, October 14.—Nellie Walton won the unfinished 2:26 race in 2:29¼.

The 2:45 purse was won by Delhi in 2:29¾, 2:31 and 2:40.

In the 2:23 purse race Observer won the first and third heats, and Frank J. the second heat. Time, 2:26, 2:28¾ and 2:28¾.

The Races at Terre Haute, Ind.

TERRE HAUTE, October 14.—First race, 3 minute trot; won by Little Gipsey. Time 2:31¼, 2:36 and 2:32.

Second race, 2:38 trot; won by John B. Time 2:33, 2:32 and 2:34.

Albion (Tenn.) Jockey Club Races.

NASHVILLE, October 14.—First race, 2 mile heats; won by Emma C. Time 3:44 1-2 and 3:38 1-2.

Ocean Race.

NEW YORK, October 14.—The ocean race to Cape May and return between the yachts Dreadnaught, Vesta and Resolute was won by the latter. By time allowance the Dreadnought came in about one minute ahead.

Hard Money Convention.

DETROIT, October 14.—The Hard Money Convention met in this city to-day. No attempt was made to secure a large attendance, and invitations were sent chiefly to leading Liberal Republicans. A number were present, and letters were received from Senator Christiancy, Congressman Durrand, ex-Governor Blain, ex-Congressman May and others. Resolutions appointing ten delegates to the Cincinnati National Hard Money Convention on October 25th, and declaring opposition to any scheme of inflation or any form of paper money not actually interconvertible into coin, were adopted.

THE OHIO ELECTION.

Hayes' Majority Thus Far 3,834.

Both Houses of the Legislature Republican.

COLUMBUS, October 14.—Returns considered reliable from eighty-five counties, received by the Republican State Committee, show a majority of 3,463 for Hayes. The counties of Wood, Carroll and Delaware, yet to be heard from, are ordinarily considered Republican counties, but Wood has gone Democratic this year, and it is thought the Democratic gain there will neutralize the Republican gains in Delaware and Carroll counties, and so make the majority for Hayes substantially as above. The Democrats concede the House of Representatives to the Republicans by a good majority, but claim the election of one Senator in the Toledo district. This gives them the Senate by one majority.

DAYTON, October 14.—Unofficial count of Montgomery county—Allen, 8,005; Hays, 7,192; Allen's majority 813; Cary, 7,847; Young, 7,258; Cary's majority, 589. Shultz, Republican, for Representative, 40 majority. The Democratic Senator for Montgomery and Preble is elected. Two Democratic Representatives are elected in Montgomery. Allen's gain is 448. The official returns are not likely to vary much from the above.

COLUMBUS, October 14—Midnight.—The Republican headquarters closed up without full returns, but careful calculations on all counties except Wood and Carroll counties give Hayes 3,834 majority. The Democratic Committee say Hayes' majority will be 3,500. The Republicans have seventeen majority in the House of Representatives. The Senate is yet in doubt, but the Democrats concede it to the Redublicans by ene majority. We have no figures as yet on State officers other than Governor, and the official returns must determine who is elected.

LATEST FOREIGN ADVICES.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Trouble With China Settled.

LONDON, October 14.—The Foreign Office received a telegram from Minister Wade under date of Pekin, October 7, stating that he obtained from the Chinese Government the guarentees which he considered necessary. Mr. Grovesner is about to proceed to Yun-nar. He has gone to Shanghai to prepare for his journey. Wade will follow Grovesner, in order to give instructions.

ITALY.

The Spanish Note to the Vatican.

ROME, October 14.—The Spanish note in reply to the Vatican is conciliatory. The Ministry explain that they were defeated. They will make every effort to establish an understanding, but cannot foretell what will be the Cortes' solution of the question. The clause of the constitution establishing religious liberty must be maintained. The note asks the Vatican to consent to a settlement upon as broad a basis as is possible

GERMANY.

Correction.

LONDON, October 14.—It was not the Director of Public Worship who dissolved his connection with the Russian portion of his diocese, but Rev. Dr. Henry Foerster, Archbishop of Breslau, who has long been in trouble with the Prussian Government, growing out of his publication of the Pope's encyclical declaring the Falck laws null and void.

TURKEY.

The War on the Wane.

LONDON, October 14.—A special from Berlin says that under the pressure of the great powers Turkey is diminishing her concentration of troops on the Servian frontier, and Servia is demobilizing her forces.

THE COTTON CROP.

September Report on the Condition of the Crop.

NEW ORLEANS, September 14.—The Committee on Information and Statistics of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, to whom was entrusted the duty of compiling a national cotton crop report made up from the returns of various Exchanges, appointed by the National Cotton Exchange of America, has made a report for September. The crop in Louisiana was damaged 25 per cent. Notwithstanding the serious damage already done, causing considerable discouragement, and an unprecedented amount of sickness among laborers, with favorable weather henceforth, the yield, as reported, will be but little less than last season.

The damage in Arkansas will not exceed 8 to 10 per cent. In Mississippi it is estimated at 20 per cent. by rot and rust. The yield will scarcely reach that of last year. In Middle Tennessee the weather has been unfavorable, rather too cool and too much rain. In Alabama there was too much rain, but not very damaging until the great storm of September 16, when the country was drowned out, submerging low grounds and beating out open cotton. In Tennessee the damage is slight. In Alabama much damage has been done by storms and by rust. The crop has been damaged at least 10 per cent. by weather since the 20th of August, and particularly by the great storm. In South Carolina the yield indicates a falling off in comparison with last year of 19¼ per cent. In Georgia the yield is reduced about five per cent. In Alabama the damage by rust and wind storms is estimated at from 5 to 50 per cent. As an average for the State it is about 25 per cent. In Mississippi the damage to the crop by rust, rot, rains, etc., is reported to be from 10 to 33 1-3.

MISSISSIPPI TROUBLES.

An Appeal for Peace and Protection to Property.

MEMPHIS, TENN., October 14.—A committee composed equally of white and colored citizens of Cohema county, Mississippi, have issued a circular invoking the efforts of all good citizens of the county on behalf of peace and to protect the private property of the people from the incendiarist's torch. It charges colored Sheriff Brown with having sought to arouse the colored people to lawless acts, by declaring to them in his harangues that the gin houses are the property of whites, and the torch is the remedy for the greivances in the hands of colored men. It appears that Col. Stovall's steam gin house was burned by incendiaries a few weeks ago. On the night of the 10th instant his stable and thirteen mules were burned, and an attempt was made to burn his dwelling. The circular urges well disposed citizens to organize for common protection against incendiaries, and nightly patrol the plantations. It is signed by nine colored men. Among the signatures of the white men are named United States Senator Alcorn and Rev. R. R. White.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, October 14, 1875.

The Cuban Rebellion.

Although this Government has repeatedly and emphatically expressed its desire to the Spanish Government for a termination of the insurrection in Cuba, and tendered its good offices to produce an accommodation between the contending parties, it has never gone to the extremes of the late trans-Atlantic story by diplomatically threatening to acknowledge the rights of the Cubans in case hostilities be not closed before the 1st of January next.

THE WEATHER.

OFFICE OF THE OBSERVER,
UNITED STATES SIGNAL SERVICE,
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 15, 1875—1 A. M.

Probabilities for To-day.

For the lower lakes, Middle and Eastern States, falling barometer, northeast to southeast winds, warmer, cloudy weather, and rain.

Cotton Stealing in the South.

LOUISVILLE, October 14.—A reliable correspondent of Natchez, Miss., now visiting Louisville, in an interview with a reporter to-day, gave as his opinion that the reports published in the Chicago Inter-Ocean concerning the troubles between the races at that place are not of a political cause or design. The gentleman says for several months past large quantities of cotton have been taken daily from the fields of planters by bad characters, principally negroes, but some few whites. The cotton was sold by these thieves to small dealers for less than its value, and they, by selling under market prices, have been getting wealthy. All the planters were more or less affected by this system of stealing, and some almost broken up by the continued disappearance of cotton. Identification is impossible, as all raw cotton looks alike, and of course cannot be recognized, even in cases when it is supposed to have been recovered. To prevent the system of stealing the planters organized patrols, and in this way protected their interests.

Marine News.

NEW YORK, October 14.—Arrived—The steamships Klopstock, from Hamburg, and City of New York, from Liverpool.

SOUTHAMPTON, October 14.—The steamship Ohio, from Baltimore, has arrived.

THE Keystone Bridge Works Company are making a 48 inch blast engine for running the hoist at the Lucy blast furnace.

Immediately on their arrival the directors' car, in which they were traveling, was attached for a debt of six hundred and fifty dollars owing by the Union Pacific Railroad Company to a wholesale firm in that city for damage to the shipment of freight over that line last March. Jay Gould and Robert E. Carr gave bonds and the car was released by the Sheriff, but owing to the detention the party stopped over.

WOMEN'S CONFERENCE.

The Proceedings of the Third Day—The Salient Features of Interest—The Devotional Exercises—An Address by Mrs. Terhune—General Notes.

The third day of the Woman's International Christian Conference was opened yesterday morning at the usual hour. The opening devotional exercises of half an hour were conducted by Mrs. Pearsoll Smith, in her peculiar, earnest manner. After talking a few minutes, she asked all to kneel and engage in silent prayer. Before rising she called on any who felt inclined to make a few audible petitions. This was responded to by a number of ladies who made touching prayers, when they arose, and the exercises were terminated by the singing of a hymn.

The President then took the chair and business was resumed. Some time was taken up in hearing the reports from the different delegates of the work in their respective districts. A particularly interesting report was that of Miss Allen, a young colored lady from Philadelphia. She read it in a very pleasing manner, and it was well prepared, being concise, yet comprehensive enough to give a clear idea of the work. It was well received.

In calling for the reports from the different cities of the nation and British Provinces it was noticeable that there was no response from Chicago, there being no Woman's Christian Association in that city. Canada is represented by delegates and written reports.

This business went on without interruption, save when an invitation was read from the Executive Committee of the Industrial Exposition, that the ladies of the Conference should visit the Exposition in a body. The invitation was accepted with thanks, and it was decided to adjourn in the afternoon, at half-past three o'clock, to enable the ladies to proceed to the Exposition, and that the afternoon session be commenced at half-past one o'clock to make up the time.

Mrs. Brown, of Montreal, offered one of the most interesting papers yet read. A full report of Pittsburgh work was also made by representations of the different branches. Our workers being on the ground there could of course, be a fuller report of home work, than from the other associations.

The reports being concluded, the following was presented and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, There exists in the minds of very many persons in our city, a deep and increasing anxiety in regard to the observance of Sunday, and a fear lest the coming Centennial Exhibition should tend to increase the evil of Sunday desecration.

Resolved, That we, the International Conference of the Woman's Christian Association, do earnestly appeal to the Executive Committee of the Centennial Commission, to close the exhibition on Sundays, and thus prevent it from becoming the means of wide-spread desecration of the day.

The President made a few remarks commendatory of the city press for the attention they had shown the Conference in giving space to full reports.

Mrs. Davis, of Cincinnati then read a paper on "Reformatory Work," written by Mrs. Pennyfather, of England, whose fame is wide spread for her devotion to this kind of Christian work. In the report she sent her greeting to her sisters in America, and expressed her deep regret that she could not be present at this Conference.

The Conference then adjourned, to meet at half-past one o'clock.

Many being anxious to converse with Mrs. Smith on the subject of her address yesterday, it was announced that she would remain with any who desired to see her, while those who wished visited the Industrial Institute.

In the afternoon the lecture room filled so rapidly that it was found necessary to adjourn to the church above, which was filled without delay, galleries included. The proceedings were opened with the singing of the hymn, "Work, for the night is coming," and prayer, after which the President introduced Mrs. Terhune (Marian Herland), who proceeded to make an address on the topic, "Our Daughters."

"Her expression is very pleasing, her manner winning, perfectly natural and unassuming. She began her address by relating the story of a father suffering from indigestion and attacked by a fit of "spasmodics," calling upon his daughter, who had had the advantage of a fine education, for aid. She ran hither and thither utterly helpless. She could have embroidered him a waistcoat, opened-worked a handkerchief, rough-coated him with shell-work, or festooned him, but for this emergency, she was totally unprepared. A case reminding her of this had occurred in her own experience. A lady who had received a liberal education in French, German and music and the higher mathematics, was widowed and beggared, and her need sought employment—not charity. In her applications to private fomilies, schools and seminaries she found them all full and without the power of patronage she could get no position in which she could earn her bread. There are a hundred persons for every one such position, and the ninety-nine are, perhaps, unfitted for any other. In music, the speaker thought she had had at least ten applicants for the privilege of instructing her little daughter, who had no ear for music, and she thought in her city (New York) there was at least one music teacher for every block of houses. She says: "Give the girls a trade—something practical and useful. Prepare them for adverse fortune, that may come to all, however favorably situated now." The brothers are independent, but what have our girls? Some say, "What borrowing of trouble! If the girl be well brought up and fairly educated, she can be honorably married." We hope our daughters will marry—not sell body and soul for mere physical support—but love purely and entirely, seeking and finding truest bliss as it may be found in marriage. She believes in love, not free love, but the pure love of one man for one woman, which makes marriage almost a sacrament. There is no ultimatum for woman; a man should marry, but woman must. But the speaker believed in first making the girl a practical housewife, in learning her to cook a beefsteak, to make coffee, to bake bread, to roast, etc., not simply how to make cakes and jellies. It was these requirements, and how to sweep, to wash dishes, and work of like nature that is so little understood, but these are the trifles that make up the aggregate of life. Work, not labor, is a blessing. She spoke of the egregious waste of time that women make, and yet it is not so much their fault as of the system under which they live. They have no business hours like men; they are constantly interrupted by untimely calls and all the annoyances of fashionable life, and the wear and tear of nerve is appalling. The speaker believed in teaching our daughters trades—trades in the literal meaning of the term. She liked to read of the business habits of the Scripture women.

The inanities and sentimentalities of the finished school girl, her sighs for the coming man or her spere, or varying it by wishing she were a boy, were things with which the speaker was not in sympathy. The girl must be built and equipped for service, whether she is ever called upon to perform it or not. She was tired of the "clinging vine;" she wanted to see a true helpmeet instead. And she honored the girl who dared to work to make a true woman of herself, in defiance of Mrs. Grundy.

Our report of Mrs. Terhune's address was much fuller, but owing to the unusual demand on our columns this morning, we are reluctantly compelled to condense it. The address was one replete with sound sense and suggestive thoughts, and was delivered in the attractive and pleasing manner for which Mrs. Terhune is so justly renowned.

Following the address was a discussion originated by the great interest manifested by the ladies in Mrs. Terhunes remarks Mrs. Lincoln endorsed what had been said, and in illustration related a story of a visit to a house where they were sitting at the table and the supply of bread became exhausted. Somebody said to the lady of the house to get her daughter to bring some bread, when the hostess said her daughter didn't know how to cut the bread. She (the speaker) was not in favor of such uselessness.

A lady from Dayton spoke of the ignorance of some wives concerning domestic affairs. This led to great misery sometimes in the family. There was some wives who were unable to cook a meal, or to make a garment. The fault of this was not with the girl, but with the mother, who failed to train her daughter to usefulness.

Mrs. Smith wanted to know what could be done in a case where public opinion was against such training, and where the daughters were reluctated to do the work, as it was not done by their class of girls in society. This was a great barrier.

Mrs. Terhune said if she had a boy and he refused to learn his letters she would compel him. She would do likewise with her daughters. The daughters, if learned properly from the first, would respect the mother's opinion more than that of the public.

Mrs. Brown, of Montreal, related a case of a young married woman who was utterly helpless in domestic matters. She had been tenderly raised, had a servant sleep in her room before her marriage, and was not tought anything concerning housekeeping. The result was she was miserable in her domestic relations and in telling of her our inafficiancy burst into tears.

Mrs. Davis said the discussion had all been one-sided. She wanted to speak a word for those bright young girls who learned after marriage. There were many who knew nothing of these things at the time of marriage, but who learned afterward and became excellent wives and mothers, and rendered their homes centers of attraction.

The young ladies in the audience duly appreciated this kindly word, and were profuse in their expressions of approval of their champion.

The discussion was quite interesting. It was finally interrupted by the President introducing Mrs. Huntingdon, of Cleveland, who read a paper on "Boarding Homes."

She discussed then on their mental and spiritual aspect. The paper was a thoughtful and suggestive one, and was well received.

The meeting closed with the singing of the hymn commencing

"My faith looks up to Thee
Thou Lamb of Calvary."

Many of the ladies then went to the Exposition, while others stayed to discuss the subject of "Consecration" with Mrs. Smith.

In the evening the letters from foreign associations having been condensed and translated by Rev. Mr. Scovel, were read to the Conference.

LAST NIGHT.

The Allegheny Torchlight Procession—A Magnificent Display and a Big Turnout—The Meeting in the Diamond—The Speeches, Etc., Etc.

The grand torchlight procession that was announced to take place last night in Allegheny, came off accordingly, and was an immense success, being the largest turnout of the kind, and the most brilliant display that has been seen for many days. The expressions of admiration and astonishment that were everywhere heard from the large concourse of observers that lined the sidewalks along the whole route of the procession, were the best possible evidence of the success of the affair.

The procession formed at the corner of Federal and Robinson streets, and moved over the advertised route in the following order:

Duquesne Grey Band (Eighteenth Regiment.)
Young Men's Republican club of Allegheny, 250 men.
Chief Marshal Woolsey and Staff.
Sharpsburg club, 200 strong.
1ST DIVISION.
James Boyd, Marshal, and Staff.
Stehle's Band.
Duquesne Marching club, of Pittsburgh, 100 men.
Duquesne Grey Drum Corps.
Second ward Pioneers, 75 men.
Central Hartranft club of Pittsburgh, 350 men, marching sixteen and twenty-four abreast, presenting a magnificent appearance.
Mt. Washington club, 75 men.
Colored drum corps.
Old Grand Central colored club of Pittsburgh, 150 men.
SECOND DIVISION.
Adam Trautman and staff commanding.
Mt. Washington Cornet Band.
Central South Side club, 100 men.
Twenty-sixth ward club, 200 men.
East End colored club, 75 men.
Second ward, Allegheny club, 75 men.
Allegheny Cornet Band.
Third ward, Allegheny, Pioneers, 50 men.
German Hartranft club of upper Allegheny, 200 men.
Third ward, Allegheny, club, 200 men.
Central colored club of Allegheny, 125 men.
Colored band.
Union Marching club (colored) 50 men.
Centennial Band.
Fourth ward Minute men, 200 men.

There were in all over 2,500 men in line, exclusive of bands and staff officers. They marched like old soldiers, some of them executing difficult movements that caused cheer after cheer to arise from the lookers-on. The companies all marched in platoons of four to twelve, yet notwithstanding this compact mass the rear of the column was many squares behind the head.

But few transparencies were carried, but one having a well executed drawing of the Post's rooster after the receipt of the Ohio election news, attracted much attention, and caused considerable amusement.

Taking it all in all, the persons who had charge of last night's demonstration may congratulate themselves that it was superior even to the most sanguine anticipations.

The organization of the meeting in the Diamond was as follows:

President—Gen. Daniel Leasure.

Vice Presidents—Wm. Wetsach, Arthur Hobson, C. H. Hetzel, Thomas Williams, Charles H. Hartman, W. W. Ackley, I. O. S. Golden, Samuel Hazlett, W. B. Miller, George Dirker, M. W. Acheson, Geo. Shiras, Jr., Capt. Richard Gray, William Swindle, Col. D. L. Smith, Wm. Semple, Reuben Miller, Hon. John E. Parke, Wm. Walker, Samuel C. Grier, Charles L. Caldwell, Thomas Jones, Gottlieb Fisher, H. D. Renwick, D. L. Patterson, Prof. S. A. Neal.

Secretaries—Reporters of the press.

The coolness of the evening and the attractions of the torchlight procession operated somewhat against the meeting but still quite a respectable number congregated to hear the addresses that were announced to be delivered. It was fully eight o'clock before the Hon. W. M. Koontz, of Somerset, was introduced to the audience by President Leasure, with a few remarks. Mr. Koontz's speech was of considerable length and much excellence. His introductory remarks were brief but appropriate, and he then took up the financial question. On this he advanced no new points of particular weight, but all that he said upon the subject was sensible, and delivered in a forcible and convincing manner. He spoke of the war, of its long and weary continuance, and its end, leaving a debt piled up that for generations the country will have to carry. But the question now was, not so much how it was made, but how it should be paid. This question, and that of what monetary system was the best for the country, were the two that were now attracting almost the sole attention of the country. He referred to the financial systems and failures of the past history of the country, and to the condition of the nation at the time President Lincoln assumed the reigns of Government. The failure of banks throughout the country had caused wide-spread suffering, and had left us in the worst possible condition for the prosecution of a gigantic war. The need of money was sore and pressing, and yielding to the exigencies of the situation, Congress enacted the greenback law, authorizing the issue of $150,000,000. As the war advanced and more men were needed, so was it found that more money must be procured; the greenback circulation was increased to $400,000,000, but with the proviso that it should never go over that sum. It was an experiment, but nevertheless a necessity, just as the raising of more men the establishment of martial law, the emancipation of the slaves, and finally arming of the latter were necessities. But still more money was needed, and during 1873, in the darkest days of the war, when our armies were everywhere unsuccessful, Secretary Chase inaugurated the national banking system, and, endorsed by the Government, the national currency was established. So much for the origin of our present currency. He then spoke of the charge of the Democratic party that the Republican party is attempting to contract the currency, and refuted it in a well sustained argument. He also showed that the present financial and business depression was not due to any acts of the Republican party, but to unbounded speculation; and that its continuance is not due to a lack of money, but to a lack of confidence. A further issue of greenbacks he stated to be impossible, as it would be unconstitutional in times of peace. He demonstrated that paper money is not really money, but merely promises to pay money, and that coin is the only genuine medium of exchange. The differences of opinion existing upon the question of finance was referred to, and he said that the party whose record was the most uniform and best, was certainly the one the better suited to decide these differences. The record of the Democratic party on greenbacks was told, and its exceeding inconsistency well showed up, while the uniform action of the Republican party was stated with telling effect. The country is pledged to redeem its bonds to the uttermost farthing, and in that pledge every patriotic citizen gloried. The great influence that this nation wields upon the destinies of the world is such that repudiation is impossible. The steady reduction of the debt was not forgotten, and the assurance given that it will continue.

The true test of a party, he said, is its policy, the laws it enacts, and its administration. Every Republican in the country can point with pride to the record of his party. Organized in opposition to slavery in 1854, it through all the years since has uniformly maintained its principles, and has had the satisfaction of seeing its designs accomplished. But the mission of the party is not completed. The needs of peace and safety throughout the land are such that the party cannot yet be laid by. Place the records of the Republican and the Democratic party side by side, and no fair reasoning man need long hesitate which to support. In fact there is no choice between the two.

The speaker then briefly referred to State matters, spoke in eulogistic terms of Governor Hartranft, and closed with an appeal to each hearer to think well before depositing his ballot in November, and he had no doubt of the result.

At the conclusion of the speech by Mr. Koontz, Hon. Thomas J. Bigham was introduced. The latter apologized for his appearance by saying that he had only been asked after the committee had found that two of the speakers, who had been advertised to appear, would not be present. Mr. Bingham's remarks were in a humorous vein, eliciting hearty applause and laughter—in fact such a speech as was needed to send the people home in a good humor with themselves and everybody else.

Col. Thomas M. Bayne made the closing remarks, and about 11 o'clock the audience dispersed.

THE EXPOSITION.

The Fourth Day—An Increasing Attendance—What Was to Be Seen—The Excursions—Items of Interest Around the Great Exhibition.

The fourth day of the great Exposition was the most successful that has yet been witnessed. The weather was favorable for a good turn out, and there was accordingly a good response, and the managers were made happy at the sight of the crowds coming in. The Exposition is now in good shape, and the people who come have a full appreciation of its magnitude.

EXCURSIONS.

The Executive Committee have made arrangements with Mr. W. C. Smythe to manage excursions to the Exposition from the following places: Philadelphia, Chicago, Wheeling, Oil City, Columbus, Cleveland, Kittanning, Butler, Brownsville and Monongahela City and Little Washington. Tickets bearing coupons good for admission into the building and a dinner will be sold. Announcements in regard to the time, rates, &c., will be made hereafter. About one-half of the regular fare will be charged. There was one excursion party from Youngstown, Ohio, yesterday.

HEAT AND SEATS.

It was much pleasanter in the building on account of the place being warmer. The heated blast attracts a good many of the visitors. It sends the hot air out with terrific force. Another improvement has been made. That is seats for visitors to rest on. A number of benches have been placed in the art gallery, so that one can rest and still examine the pictures. At different parts of the building, also, benches are placed. Yesterday morning some of the machinery was set going, which created a great deal of industrial music and attracted the crowd. The other kind of music, rendered by the Great Western Band, still goes on.

We continue to note some of the displays. Among them is that of

WELTY BROS.

Who have decorated the side of the dining hall, with carpets, trugs, &c., making it look like a gigantic piece of the most brilliant mosaic work. The goods are taken from their stock in store in Caldwell's building, corner of Park way and Federal street, Allegheny, and are fair samples of what they constantly keep on hand. The assortment embraces all the leading varieties of carpets, from the most expensive to the plainest, and as they are spread out, they give a good idea of what the carpet would look like on the floor. The ladies seem to highly appreciate this display.

MELLOR & HOENE

still keep the music going at their stand. They have all the materials for the purpose for they exhibit one of the finest assortments of goods ever opened in this city. Their grand Chickering upright—the $1,500 beauty—attracts very great attention, and yesterday the stand was constantly surrounded by crowds, who not only semed to take pleasure in looking at the instruments, but were more delighted in hearing the rich toned instrument played upon. The pianos, however, were not the only attractions. There are a number of very fine Mason & Hamlin organs Among the organs is a splendid specimen of a portable pipe organ, which is an exceedingly handsome instrument, and a sweet toned one as well. There are also other and smaller sizes of organs—all the grades in size being represented. The Mason & Hamlin is an organ which has a world-wide reputation, and visitors to the Exposition, who hear it once, go away satisfied that its reputation is fully deserved.

In addition to the organ display and the exhibition of Chickering pianos, Messrs. Mellor & Hoene also exhibit the other makes of pianos for which they are sole agents. Among them is a piano manufactured exclusively for their house, which is a very superior instrument and very reasonable in price. They also have the Hazelton piano, which stands high in favor. Of the other makes we shall speak again.

FLEMING, AGNEW & CO.

The fine display of house furnishing goods and tinware made by Messrs. Fleming, Agnew & Co., of Third avenue, attracts great attention from enthusiastic housekeepers. Everything in the tinware line that is needed in a well-furnished house can be seen in this assortment, besides many little conveniences, which are the latest emanation of the creative genius of skilled workmen. Some of the fancy figured tinware, is a marvel of artistic workmanship and beauty of coloring. The colors blend with almost the regularity and finish of a good oil painting. Every housekeeper who visits the Exposition should take a stroll toward this stand. It is so conspicuous, however, that it cannot be missed.

THE BRIGHT LIGHT.

The light of the Exposition is in the east and just under the grand stairway. Many people wondered what it was that illuminated that vicinity, but it was easily understood when they made a trip to the spot and found it was Elaine, the world-famous, non-explosive oil. To see the manner in which a room can be illuminated with Elaine, and the brilliant, yet soft, steady light which it makes, is to be convinced that it is the oil, and has not been too highly endorsed by scientific men. When the light was dim, the Executive Committee authorized the use of Elaine to light up, and no less than 227 lamps were filled with this absolutely safe, non-explosive oil. This article has been endorsed by the United States Lighthouse Board, after most stringent tests made before a scientific commission during the past summer. It is the only oil that the Executive Committee and Chief of the Fire Department would allow to be used in the building. Everybody should see it burning.

LAKE GEORGE DIAMONDS.

That well known dealer in Lake George Diamonds, Mr. E. DeRoy of No. 153 Smithfield street, makes a fine display. He is located near the center and just east of Messrs. Mellor & Hoene's stand. He has a large number of diamonds on exhibition. The stock embraces all sizes, and the diamonds are all mounted in various styles. The "Lake George" can hardly be distinguished from a real diamond—certainly cannot be so marked except by a keen connoissuer. They are very brilliant, and in some respects are more showy than the real article. Mr. De Roy also has on exhibition a fine lot of gold and silver watches, jewelry, revolvers—some very handsome specimens of seven shooters—and other articles in that line. His show cases are among the most beautiful sights in the Exposition.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

From present indications there will be a large attendance to-morrow. The children have got wind of the reduction in price for their benefit, and propose to avail themselves of it.

Dancing.

The Dancing Academy of Prof. James P. Brooks, at No. 39 Fifth Avenue, K. Blair's Parlors, is deservedly enjoying a heavy patronage and rapidly winning more. He is thoroughly familiar with all the latest and most popular movements, including waltzes, quadrilles, etc., and announces that he stands in readiness to teach them independently of his classes, in seminaries, schools, and private families. His regular classes are on Monday and Thursday evenings for ladies and gentlemen, and on Tuesday and Friday afternoons for masters and misses.

BREVITIES.

Paragraphic Pencilings of Passing Events.

····The Castle Shannon Inclined Railway to Mt. Washington will be opened for travel on Tuesday.

····Another special meeting of Select Council is called for this afternoon, to consider the ordinance vetoed on Monday by the Mayor.

····Frederick Stolte, who shot John Hite in the bowels last Sunday night, on the South Side, was released from prison yesterday on $5,000 bail, as Hite is now considered out of danger of death. The hearing in the case takes place at ten o'clock to-morrow morning, before Deputy Mayor Hoerr.

····A workman, whose name was not ascertained, was severely injured in the face while working at the Sligo rolling mill, South Side, on Wednesday evening. He was working at the rolls, when the tongs he was handling became entangled in the machinery and struck him in the face. He was taken to his home in Brownsville and medical aid summoned.

····We have newspaper reports on business thus: "Boston steady, but a rush is one of the things of the past;" Baltimore: "fall business light;" Cincinnati: "better than was expected;" Chicago: "big jobbing trade;" St. Louis: "hopeful and cheerful;" St. Paul: "extremely active and collections satisfactory;" Pittsburgh: "increase;" Memphis: healthy and hopeful.

····The father of James Welsh, the young man who was drowned near the Point on Wednesday afternoon, called at the Mayor's office yesterday morning and asked if he could obtain an order compelling the men on a sandboat, located near where the accident occurred, to move a short distance. He stated that the river had been dragged all night without success, and it was thought that the body might be in the hole excavated by the boat. He had requested the men on the boat to drop down the stream, but they had declined to accede to the request. He was informed that the Mayor had no authority in the premises, and that if the employes on the boat were so devoid of humanity as to refuse his request, he would be compelled to submit.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp 28¼.

BONDS at Frankfort, new 5s, 99¾.

THE report and estimates of Lieutenant Colonel MERRILL, for the improvement of the Monongahela River, reach $189,000 for the season of 1876-7. The work is steadily progressing, and the results of the improvement are spoken of in flattering terms.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says the importance of the victory achieved by the Republicans of Ohio can hardly be overestimated. To the country at large it means an unmistakable verdict in favor of National honor and National honesty, and to the Republican party it means an assurance of success in 1876.

THE Elevator, the organ of the colored people, is out for October, and is strong in its advocacy of the Republican ticket. Professor NEALE, its editor, is an earnest Republican, clear in his apprehension of the principles on which the party rests, and earnest in his advocacy of them. A paper of the ability of the Elevator should be grandly patronized.

THE Post is rather dismal in its views of Ohio, but is positively savage in its feeling toward the New York World. It proclaims that sheet to have been bribed, and claims that it is equally bought to defeat the Democracy of Pennsylvania. We remember it was not long since it was declared to have neither circulation or influence. Which declaration is true?

THE Baltimore American thinks "the result of the Ohio election is important in the effect it will have on the approaching election in Pennsylvania, where the Democrats are preparing to go into the contest on the same rag-money issue, tending to the destruction of the national honor, the one element of prosperity which no commercial nation can surrender and live."

PRESIDENT GRANT is certainly closely watched. He corrected, at Chicago, an after dinner allusion of the Mayor, stating that the President would not again visit Chicago, by remarking that his term of office would not expire till 1877, which is true, and that he expected to visit Chicago once a year. In this simple correction we notice several astute journals see the evidence of a design to secure a Third Term. Isn't it time this miserable nonsense were abandoned?

THE mass meeting in the Diamond, Allegheny, last evening, was a grand success, and will do a large amount of good. There is the right spirit developing in our county canvass, and if it continues will rouse up the old time vigor, under which grand majorities were had. The attendance, earnestness, and enthusiasm mark a very different condition of things from what have existed for two years past. Even without the result in Ohio we would regard the indications as entirely favorable to our ticket; but with a noble majority there to give us moral influence, there can be no doubt of the ultimate result, the election, by a handsome majority, of our entire county ticket.

A SINGULAR interest has developed among the press touching the fast mail train. Innuendoes, or positive assertions are made to the effect that the roads which run the fast trains are allowed a monopoly of mail carrying, and that the roads from which the mails are withdrawn are still receiving pay. Postmaster General JEWELL has shown himself possessed of fine business ability, and is managing his department with great business shrewdness and economy. Such being the case, it is reasonable to suppose that he has a perfectly clear perception of the railroad traffic, and that if he stops sending the mails over certain roads, he will also stop paying them. We suspect that the real trouble is the jealousy inspired because of the success of the fast mail system.

WE notice that Rev. J. L. STEWART, DAVID OLIN and Hon. HENRY RAWLE, Republican candidate for State Treasurer, are on the Board of Public Charities for Erie county, which Board has just presented a very able report touching the treatment of vagrants, tramps, the poor, and the insane poor. Touching the latter, the report agrees with all that has hitherto appeared, that the regular insane asylums are the only places where the insane can be properly treated. The duty of employing, rather than of merely feeding vagrants, is strongly urged. We notice the report, however, not only because of the excellence of its suggestions, but also because it shows the kind of man we have as our candidate for State Treasurer. Hon. HENRY RAWLE is ready for every good word and work, and illustrates this by his daily life.

WE HAVE an inquiry whether a person having lived in one voting district and moved therefrom to another within sixty days of an election, loses his vote in the district from which he moved. It is recognized by the writer that he does not acquire the right to vote in the district into which he has moved. The uniform decisions in such cases have been that he cannot vote in his old district. The requirement that a person shall have resided in the election district at least two months immediately preceding an election is applied, and thus far the practice has been uniform. It works hardly, in certain cases, and the law is evidently aimed at colonizers, and might be tested, so far as it applies to citizens known to have properly moved from one district to another. But as matters stand, the case is as we have stated it.

THE triumph of STANLEY, in reaching the Victoria Nyanza, has led to comparisons between him and SPEKE, the great African traveler. The circumstances under which each operated, render a comparison very unjust. SPEKE had few resources, and traveled with great difficulty in a country where one must buy his way with presents. STANLEY was well equipped, and had the advantage of ample means. A comparison between him and BAKER would be more proper, but even here there is difficulty, as both reached one objective by different routes. It can be fairly said, that STANLEY is possessed of a clear brain, and power of command, as well as great personal endurance, qualities which make him a first class explorer. He wields a facile pen, and can clearly describe what he sees. All that any traveler can accomplish, he will. He has been seasoned to African climates, and has the vigor of bodily health, necessary to endure its malarious influences. He is great as a traveler and explorer. His trip for the relief of LIVINGSTONE was a wonderful achievement, only eclipsed by that now accomplished, of reaching and exploring the Victoria Nyanza. Whatever of mystery remains as to the sources of the Nile seem now in course of solution, and ere long we will be done with the one great doubt that existed concerning it.

FINANCES IN POLITICS.

It not unfrequently happens, that when a canvass is settled, an effort is made to define the exact significance of the vote taken, and determine the lesson intended to be taught. The intelligent journals of the country have given clear expression as to the Ohio election, charging the defeat of the Democracy to their hypocrisy and dishonesty, in seeking the unlimited inflation of the very currency they had declared unconstitutional. One of our contemporaries, not particularly famed for its wisdom on any subject, is very confident that the issue was that of forced resumption, and regards the result as a declaration of the love of the people for hard money, and of forced resumption. The truth is, this particular phase of the question was not made a prominent feature of the canvass,—except so far as WOODFORD's speeches were concerned. The attitude of the Republican party, in the main, was one of resistance to the unlimited inflation theories of the Democrats. The Cincinnati Commercial, and possibly a few other papers, were decided for hard money as soon as it could be reached; but hostility to inflation was the feature of this phase of the canvass. All who favor our greenback system as it now is, or who desire to reach resumption through the encouragement of industry; or even those who favor the increase of the greenback currency to its legal limit, could unite to oppose the unlimited inflation theories of the Democratic party. They did this, not as committing themselves to any particular resumption scheme, but as opposing the wild inflation ideas of the Democratic party.

But the currency was not the only nor the principal issue in some parts of Ohio. The Catholic question, in certain parts of the State, was even more prominent than the financial issue. It was discussed in the light of the GEGHAN bill, and of Archbishop PURCELL's declarations, and aroused the people exceedingly. We have credible information that thousands of votes were lost to the Democracy in Southern Ohio by their attitude toward the public schools. It was, where opened, an absorbing issue, the influence of which was against them, even within the ranks of their own party. Then there was the feeling that the Democratic party was hypocritical and unreal in all its declarations. It was in the attitude of the person who is believed to be untruthful and deceitful,—suspected at all times and under all circumstances. These were the real causes of their defeat. In other words, the Republican party in Ohio did not go into an aggressive fight for hard money, but did make a defensive contest against inflation. These are the facts, and there is little use in seeking to warp them.

AFTER THE BATTLE.

The address of the Chairman of the Democratic Central Committee of this State, just issued, is perhaps one of the most doleful papers ever placed before even discomfited Democracy. For downright impudence and effrontery it would be hard to excel it, and its author, Mr. HENDRICK B. WRIGHT, can claim for himself a success in this line which even the most blatant demagogue of the slave-holding, whip-cracking time could not attain. After suffering one of the most humiliating and disastrous defeats at the hands of the people, administered, without a shadow of doubt, for the errors and crimes of its past, and its confessed disqualification to honestly and wisely administer the State affairs in Ohio, it looks like brazen impertinence to charge this crushing disaster to its hopes, on the ignorance of the masses of voters in Ohio. After a canvass almost unparalleled, wherein the most adroit and eloquent speakers in the land were called in to discuss the pending issues, and in which the largest latitude was taken and the whole range of political issues most thoroughly reviewed, to state that the people of Ohio cast their votes for the Republican candidates and principles through ignorance is, to say the least, most foolish and contemptible.

A few extracts from this lachrymose epistle will give our readers a fair sample of the kind of sympathy tendered the Democracy in this State for the recent sweeping Republican victories. Mr. WRIGHT says: "We sympathize with the men who have fallen in defense of those sacred rights guaranteed to them by the Constitutional laws of the country. By the power of their own money, raised from them by oppressive taxation, they have fallen." Could anything be more foolish and frivolous than that? What, may we ask in all candor, "Constitutional right" has been assailed, and what defended, in Ohio? Was it the right to issue an unlimited volume of greenbacks, or was it the right to inaugurate a division of the common school fund of the State? Which of these does Mr. WRIGHT claim was the Constitutional one, in the defence of which the Democracy fell? These were the questions—the leading ones—if not composing all that were before the people. How foolish in the Chairman of our State Democratic Committee to attempt to insult the intelligence of the people!

But again the address says: "We of Pennsylvania have been the first to feel the rod of oppression and tyranny." Unless in this statement he is referring to the conduct of the Democratic majority in the House, at Harrisburg, last Winter, and the unparliamentary and ungentlemanly conduct of the Speaker, we know not what it means. The only "rod of oppression and tyranny" that has been seen in this State, in the recollection of the oldest inhabitant, was the one Speaker PATTERSON held over the minority last Winter, and this statement will not be denied by any honest Democrat who sat in the House, through its last session. It is for such exhibitions of "tyranny and oppression," such examples of vindictiveness and outlawry, such illustrations of the wild, tempestuous scenes liable to be produced by the "tyranny" of Democratic majorities, when temporarily given the power, that the people are crying halt in this State, fearing that their liberties are not safe in the hands of men no better than the Commune. Yea, verily, Mr. WRIGHT may well refer to the scenes of last Winter at Harrisburg wherein honest Democrats blushed at the bold attempts of the Speaker of the House to oppress and tyrannize over the minority. The people know of it; it is no imaginary thing, and their expression of disapproval will be heard and felt in November.

We have not time now to look further into this address of defeated Democracy; but its furious shouts of reform; its specious demands for economy, and its jargon of falsehood come with bad grace after the exhibition it made at the State Capitol last Winter.

The people have weighed it, in this State, as well as in Ohio, and found it sadly wanting; and we have not the least doubt that they will throw it aside at the November election, utterly cast it out, as unworthy of further trust. Ohio has done nobly; it remains for us in this State to follow up the victory thus begun, and we have no doubt upon the completion of the work, when it shall be submitted to their decision. We have the most unbounded confidence in the intelligence and honesty of the people. They may, for a time, be blinded by the promises of demagogues and charlatans; but their final decision is as accurate as the needle to the pole, and comes with a force, when once started, that sweeps irresistibly all before it. Democracy is as surely doomed, in this State, as their brethren in Ohio, and all their charming promises, like their hopes, are as idle as the wind.

POLITICAL NOTES.

NOT only is Allen's fog-horn silenced, but when next he "rises up" it will be to admit Mr. Hayes to his chair.

A GEORGIA clergyman urges ex-Governor Joseph E. Brown upon President Grant for Secretary of the Interior.

"THE Lucifer of American politics" is the rather harsh designation applied by the New Haven Register (Dem.) to Mr. Wendell Phillips.

CHARLES W. COOMBS, of Missouri, will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Doorkeepership of the next House of Representatives.

CHIEF JUSTICE WAITE appears again as a Presidential candidate. The Washington Star thinks he is the coming man for the Republican nomination.

THE official vote for delegate to Congress in New Mexico was: Elkins, Republican, 8,681; Valdez, Democrat, 7,100; Republican majority, 1,581.

THERE is a man in Jerseyville, Ill., who has not shaved himself since the first election of Lincoln as President, and who declares his intention of letting his beard grow until the Democrats elect a President. In other words, he will not be shaved until the country is shaved.

"WHAT's in a name?" There's Victor E. Piollet, who was nominated three times for Congress, and he was not a victor in any of the campaigns. And he will not be more successful as a candidate for State Treasurer than he was when a candidate for Congress.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

AT Jackson, Ohio, last week, Governor Hendricks was escorted to a hotel which, though it had a Democratic landlord, had a Republican landlady. As a consequence that particular hotel displayed no flags on the day of the Democratic meeting. Who says the women have no influence in the country?

THE Trenton, N. J., State Gazette (Rep.) is becoming very heterodox. Alluding to the departure of ex-Governor Curtin into the ranks of the inflationists, it says: "Devotion to the Union and the stars and stripes wonderfully magnified a man's moral and mental stature during the war. We now begin to see what pigmies some of our idols were.

SENATOR EDMUNDS, in a letter to Attorney General Pierrepont, declining the offer of the United States Circuit Judgeship for the Second Judicial District of Vermont, expresses his thanks for the honor tendered, but says his friends advise him to remain in the Senate. Besides, the salary of six thousand dollars is insufficient as an inducement for him to resign his present position.

PERSONAL.

THE Dodge-Jewell wedding presents amounted to $10,000.

A DISPATCH from Shanghai states that Minister Wade is expected there shortly.

FRANKLIN PIERCE was the only President who went out of office with a Cabinet as originally appointed.

MR. MOODY has asked Brooklyn to "let him off, and he will begin in Philadelphia, October 31, God willing."

THE Duke of Portland is one of the wealthiest of living peers; his daily income is estimated at £1,000.

ENGINEER FITCH, of the navy, son-in-law of Gen. Sherman, has resigned, and will leave the service at the end of the year.

JOHN McCULLOUGH says that the story of Ralston's dissipation was untrue, and that the great banker never had a wagon that cost $500.

IT is proposed to raise a sum of money in Boston for Mrs. Tilton, and the Globe of that city has consented to receive and deliver the same to the beneficiary.

DR. DEEMS' text for the inauguration address of Vanderbilt University is said to have been, "Cornelius, thy prayer is answered"—which would seem to indicate that the Doctor is facetious.

COMMODORE VANDERBILT is buying up real estate in Boston. Doubtless he thinks of laying his bones beside those of O'Baldwin, the prize-fighter. It is fashionable now to live in Boston—when one is dead.

VICE PRESIDENT WILSON is greatly rejoiced over the result of the Ohio election. He thinks it due the to return of alienated elements to the Republican party, and believes that in the permanence of this return lies the hope of future success.

ST. BARTHOMEW's Protestant Episcopal Church, New York, was filled Tuesday night with a richly-dressed throng, assembled on the occasion of the marriage of Miss Annie Wood, daughter of the Hon. Fernando Wood, to Mr. Alonzo G. Hagedorn.

MR. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS says his chief object in coming North to lecture this Winter is "to do good in bringing about a better state of feeling and a better understanding between the people of the different sections of our great and common country."

DR. HELMBOLD was not released from the Bloomingdale Insane Hospital, but succeeded in escaping from a window. The next evening he was arrested as he was leaving one of the theatres in New York and taken back to his old quarters. He is probably permanently insane.

TENNYSON smokes only the best Virginia tobacco, and habitually in clay pipes, which he breaks after one use. It was while smoking a light dudheen that he wrote those inspired lines describing a fire in an ice-house—Thus 500 tons of ice were soon reduced to ashes; fully 500."

AN old letter of Andrew Jackson's has come to light in Memphis, in which he speaks of his veto of the United States Bank bill in this way: "I inclose my veto to the Bank bill. I have killed this hydra of corruption, or at least shorn it of its power to destroy the liberty of our country."

THOMAS HAVIENT, a wealthy French tradesman, has probably left the most remarkable will on record. Among a number of singular bequests was one instituting at the annual village fete a race with pigs ridden by boys or men. The rider of the winning pig was to have a prize of $400, on condition that he wear mourning for the deceased during two years after the race. The municipality accepted the bequest, and the race was held according to the conditions.

THE Hon. Lyman Tremain was in Paris about three weeks ago, much improved in health by his tour. He says in a published letter: "The ex-Empress had just left Ragatz before our arrival, but I was told that she was lame with rheumatism, and used crutches. Last evening we dropped into a shop on the Rue de la Paix to purchase a picture of Eugenie which we saw in the window. As the woman delivered it she said: 'She is not now the fashion of Paris. Nobody wishes her back. Even the negatives of her best photographs are destroyed by order of the Government.'"

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

THE State Treasury Investigating Committee has adjourned until Monday afternoon next.

THE Jamaican Government has seized the steamer Uruguay and its cargo of arms and ammunition.

THE newspapers of London are unanimous in their expression of satisfaction at the result of the October elections in America.

THE report is current in Cincinnati that Judge Taft has been offered the Secretaryship of the Interior, and that ex-Governor Denison is the President's next choice.

A BUTCHER at Galesburg, Ill., named Frank Oestreicher, has been arrested for cutting the eyes out of a yoke of cattle that he could not induce to enter the slaughter-house.

IN one of the large London hotels they have introduced steam machinery for washing the dirty plates and dishes, and also for cleansing boots and knives and forks. It is said to answer well.

JENNY LIND-GOLDSCHMIDT has presented to the Church of the Holy Trinity, Wimbledon Park, an elegant Munich window representing the transfiguration, as a memorial to the late Dr. Wilberforce, Bishop of Winchester, England.

IN Portugal a young man courts his lady by standing silently in front of her window, while she looks down approvingly upon him. One faithful man remained before a lady's window for thirty-four years. She was a nun, and her window was in a cell.

JOB never tried to light a fire, in a cold room, at 5 o'clock in the morning, with wet hickory wood. He merely had boils, and, if we are not mistaken, plenty of cinders to scratch with. Yet that person is frequently spoken of as the most patient of men.

JAMES W. HEWBETT, dealer in hides, leather and oils, under the firm name of John A. Hewbett & Son, Baltimore, has suspended. Hewbett is preparing a statement for his creditors. The liabilities are supposed to amount to $60,000 or $70,000.

FROM the top of the Court House tower in Greensburg, Ind., which is one hundred and forty feet from the ground, grows a maple tree eight feet high and two and a half inches in diameter. The seed was probably dropped into a joint of the stone-work by a passing bird.

A WESTERLY, R. I., clergyman married a couple the other night, received his fee and sent them away, apparently satisfied, but, a day or two after, the bridegroom returned and said that he had come to pay more, as the woman had turned out much better than he expected.

JOSEPH McCARTY, of West Virginia, was robbed of $1,700 in Indianapolis, on Tuesday night, while standing on the platform of the Indianapolis, Bloomington & Western Railroad, as the train was leaving the depot, by three men, who jumped on the train. Mr. McCarty thinks the men followed him from West Virginia.

AN honest California farmer sent to the Illinois State Fair the heaviest fleece of wool on record, its total weight being a trifle over fifty pounds. The Wool-Growers' Association had it scoured and weighed. There proved to be thirty-eight pounds of grease and dirt in it and two pounds of burs, so that it was a case of more fleece than wool.

THE Macey Brothers, of Kentucky, offer a purse of $2,500 to trot any five horses in the United States (the horses to be two, three, four and five years old and trained in one stable the present season,) for $500 each; or they will match three two-year-olds for $500 each, to trot over the Lexington Course at the coming fall meeting, under the National Association rules.

IT was an affecting case. It was in Indiana; and she applied for a divorce. "Did he give you clothing enough?" said the judge. "I lived with him nineteen years," said she, "and all the clothes which he ever bought me were a bunch of hair-pins and a tooth-brush." Here is a slight contribution to the great dress problem which now agitates all feminine conventions and congresses.

THE committee appointed by the Hennepin and Rock Island Canal Company met in Chicago on Thursday morning, to consider the best means of securing the passage by Congress of a bill appropriating money for the construction of the Hennepin Canal extension. Speeches were made by prominent members of the committee and others, but no definite action was decided on.

THE question of taxing religious, educational, and charitable institutions is now discussed earnestly in Massachusetts. The total estimated value of such property in Boston exempt from taxation is nearly $20,000,000, and the amount of taxes lost to the city and State is about $275,000. In one ward of Boston there is five million dollars' worth of property, mostly churches, exempt from taxation.

MR. MOODY seems to be a man of uncertain mind. He engages himself to begin operations at Brooklyn, then yields to the solicitations of Philadelphia and tries to beg off from Brooklyn; and now at last, it appears, he decides to fulfil his Brooklyn engagements after all. We trust that when he once actually begins work, Mr. Moody will not display a like variability of mind. Let not him who putteth his hand to the plough look back.

THE exclusive poet of the Denver Tribune has contributed a luminous "Ode to Ortum," the concluding stanzas of which read as follows:

I would not dy in Ortum,
With peaches fit for eatin',
When the wavy korn is getting wripe,
& the candidates are treatin';
When the sassidge-meat is phryin',
And hickory-nuts are thick,
Ow, who would think of dyin'
Or even getting sick?

TUESDAY afternoon an unknown man, aged about thirty years, threw himself or fell from the top of the Washington Monument at Mount Vernon Place, Baltimore, to the granite base, a distance of 180 feet, and was crushed to a shapeless mass. Nothing was found about his person indicating his name. He was genteelly clad. A note was found in a pocket of his clothing which read: "Now, Miss Cobb, I leave thee in these words, hoping to hear from you:

"Fare thee well! and if for ever,
Still for ever, fare thee well.
E'en though unforgiven, never
'Gainst thee shall my heart rebel."

Later advices state that Mr. James A. Johnson, a gentleman about fifty years of age, residing at 118 South Gimor street, appeared at the Central Station and asked to be shown the body of the deceased. The old gentleman seemed very much dejected, and remarked to Lieutenant Frazier that he feared the suicide was no other than his only son, Arthur S. Johnson, who had lately been of a wandering disposition. He was shown the body, which was wrapped in a winding sheet, and at once recognized it as that of his child.

SNOBBISH POOR MEN.

How They Treat Their Friends, and How They Treat Their Wives.

In answer to a squib going the rounds of the press, asking for a good five cent cigar, a correspondent says:—The truth is that you can buy right here in New York a very good cigar, by the box, for five cents. In one or two of the cheap French restaurants there is a revival of the old-fashioned five cent cheroot, cut at both ends. It is a good cigar, though it is necessarily small. One reason why there are so few good cheap cigars, is that so many poor ones are purchased by transient buyers. Even in booths and bar-rooms where there is a regular custom, the transient buyer is served from the case, while an extra box is reserved for the favorites. At ferry and railroad booths the very worst cigars are kept; and you know what "a bar-room cigar" is. The ten-cent cigars on regular sale cost the retail dealers from four to five cents; usually four. The fifteen-cent cigars cost them seven or eight. There are stores where there is much selling of cigars to customers who buy by the box; but the cigars are by no means cheap. There are others where you can buy cheap ones, as I said. But such places are not plenty. Another reason for the prevalence of bad cheap cigars is that men are too snobbish to buy cheap ones. It is in this city, at least, considered quite mean to ask your companion to take a ten-cent cigar. If the dealer hands out ten-cent ones, you must say, "O, give us something good." This shows that you are made of money. Your wife, meanwhile, would consider it an item of great extravagance if she bought ten cents' worth of candy every day; and while you are urging your friend to take a twenty-cent cigar, as if you didn't smoke a stale old corn-cob pipe with nigger-head tobacco when you come home, your wife is sitting in the kitchen putting a three cent patch in the seat of your pantaloons, and lunching on soda crackers from a closet shelf. Nothing pains me more than to see a heavy luncher take his wife for the first time into a restaurant, and in a big, high-toned manner order "sweet breads, mushrooms, and a soft-shell crab," and to hear the poor little woman say, "Charlie, what do they taste like?" One can almost forgive a woman for showing her shape in a pinch-back dress. In this life she has so little else to show.

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S PALACE.

A Sketch of His City Residence.

Emperor William of Germany is not a man who cares much for luxury. The Rev. Wayland Hoyt, of Boston, has visited his palace recently, at Berlin, and writes entertainingly about it as follows: "The Emperor William does not seem to have anything he wishes to conceal. I spent a very interesting hour in passing through the palace, which is his constant city residence. It is not very grand or even sumptuous. But enter it and you at once feel that you are in the home of a soldier. It is almost an arsenal, it is so warlike every way. Old armor and new armor, fragments of shells—the mementoes of battles, models of the different kinds of soldiers in their appropriate uniform, models of various guns, great relief maps of battlefields and fortresses—these are everywhere about. Almost all the pictures, too, are material—battle scene after battle scene; some of older conflicts, others of the modern fights in which the Emperor himself is the conspicuous figure. I went into the Emperor's private study and library. I saw the chair in which he sits, the desk at which he writes, the pile of dispatches awaiting his attention, the books he uses, the papers fresh from his hand. It is manifestly a workman's place—this study. The grim old Emperor is evidently no idler. He keeps hand on things. I am told that he is at his table regularly every morning at 6. Well, no one can help honoring the fearless old fellow amid such proofs of painstaking devotion to duty. Sixteen miles from Berlin is Potsdam, the favorite residence of King Frederick the Great. Here, too, is the present Emperor's Summer palace. Well, there is many a country seat in America more splendid. I was most interested in this palace, in the Emperor's sleeping-room. It is utterly plain. His bed is but a single mattress upon a narrow and common beadstead."

Why Not Smoke as Well as a Man?

A Pottstown letter says: "A gentlemen and lady, elegantly dressed, entered the smoking car of the afternoon express train down at Reading yesterday. The conductor, Mr. Samuel Frescoin, who is proverbial for his courtesy and politeness, informed the man of his mistake, and was answered in this wise: "Well, whose business is it; don't I smoke, and don't my wife smoke, and ain't this a smoking car?" The physiogomy of the unusually bland puncher of pasteboards underwent a visible change as he uttered the reply of "All right, my dear sir." A moment later the man handed a cigar case to his wife, who, with her delicate fingers, selected a dark-colored Havana, and the next both were puffing away, seemingly as contented as wood-choppers. The couple were spiritual mediums.—Miners' Journal.

A DOWN EAST KEELY.

How Mr. Hoyt Proposes to Drive Steamships and Run Sewing Machines—Something to Surprise Visitors to the Centennial.

There is a man in Lewistown, Me., who as firmly believes that he has discovered the principle of perpetual motion and self-creating power as he believes that the name he has inherited from his father is Hoyt. His friends entertain a singular confidence in the discovery. None of them hase ever seen the machine running, and their confidence is based partly upon the fact that Mr. Hoyt has devoted fifteen years to the elaboration of his plan, and partly on their inability to discover a flaw in the theory. The beauty of this self-creating power is that it requires no fuel, neither blows up nor bursts through dams, may be operated by a three-year-old child of limited intelligence, and never takes occasion to run away like the enslaved horse, or to kick out behind like the impatient mule. The machine is a constant and untiring generator of power. It may be added that upon all other topics Mr. Hoyt is perfectly sane.

The power lies in cannon balls. Mr. Hoyt describes his motor as follows: There is a hollow iron wheel, like a railway wheel, but much larger and without flange. Inside the wheel are four large iron tubes, beginning at the axle and running to the perimeter. The tubes are not straight; they curve so that each forms an arc of seventy or eighty degrees. The inside of the curve faces the direction in which the wheel is to revolve. In each tube are two heavy cannon balls, which can roll from axle to circumference or from circumference to axle. The curvature of the tubes is such that on one side of the wheel the cannon balls are always at the circumference, and on the other side always at the axle. The side where they are at the circumference, and where their weight exerts the greater leverage, will of course be weighted down, and the wheel will turn until the heavy point reaches the bottom; but this partial revolution brings the cannon balls in the next tube to the circumference, and that, becoming in its turn the heaviest point, causes another quarter revolution of the wheel. This operation being constantly repeated by the succession of cannon balls in the succession of curved tubes, the wheel constantly revolves.

This is the broad principle of the machine, which, as will be observed, draws upon the law of gravitation for its motive power. One side of a wheel is constantly heavier than the other side, therefore the heavier side keeps continually going down and the lighter side going up; hence the wheel continually turns itself, its shaft, and whatever belting may be attached to the shaft.

There is also an ingenious arrangement of levers, so complicated that it would be difficult to explain it without a diagram, but which utilizes the momentum of the cannon balls as they fall to the circumference, and transfers the force thus acquired to the tube coming next behind, using it to start the next pair of canon balls away from the axle.

Mr. Hoyt thinks that it would only be necessary to have a very heavy wheel and very heavy cannon balls to drive machinery of the largest construction. He is ready to contract with the Cunard or any other line of steamships to supply them with his wheels, and argues that the advantage of his motor to ocean steamers would be not only the saving of fuel but the gain for cargo of the large space now occupied by the coal bins. He also says that he has now a small wheel in operation, and that his wife's sewing machine has been run by it for the last eight months. He is constructing a larger machine for the Philadelphia Exposition, and has applied for a patent.

GOLD is valued at $146 per cubic inch. At this rate a cubic foot of the precious metal, which contains 1,728 cubic inches, will be worth about $252,288. The entire quantity of gold now known to be in existence is valued at about three thousand millions of dollars, so that if it were welded into one mass it could be contained in a cube the side of which would not measure over twenty-three feet.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, October 15, 1875.

The clear, pleasant weather of yesterday materially improved the general appearance of business, and increased the demands for favors at the banks. Public spirit is very largely affected by the weather, and a few bright days do much toward relieving the depression occasioned by stormy periods. At all events, the inflow of deposits, and the general run of business, very materially improved the showing at the banks. Were the times usually prosperous, the run of business at the banks, considered on the existing basis, would be good. We mean by this, that enough paper offers, were it acceptable, to fully test the capacity of the banks; but while a liberal spirit is displayed, yet there is enough of caution to hold undesirable paper in abeyance. Hence the line of discounts is much smaller than would otherwise be the case. Still we think there is a manifest improvement in the tendency of the times, and hope this may be continued.

The entire stock of gold in this country may be summed up as follows:

|---|---|
| Gold and silver in United States Treasury October 9. . . . | $67,750,000 |
| In circulation on the Pacific coast. . . . . . . | 20,000,000 |
| Coin and bullion in all other ownerships. . . . . . | 5,000,000 |
| Total. . . . . . . . | $92,750,000 |

How much of the above mentioned $67,750,000 of "coin" in the Treasury is silver is not known. All we know is that the Treasury at one time set aside $10,000,000 for the purchase of silver, and that a large part of this $10,000,000 of gold was sent to the San Francisco Mint to be paid out for silver bullion. But some of the gold was turned over to the San Francisco national banks to enable them to resume. It is, however, known that a very large amount of silver was bought and coined in pursuance of the silver resumption scheme. The mass of new silver coin accumulated in the Custom House at Boston is so great that a few weeks ago the building had to be strengthened by temporary supports. On last Saturday also, October 9, the United States Assay Office in New York sent to Philadelphia for coinage ten tons of silver. As a ton of silver averages about $35,000 in value, the total invoice was about $340,000. It is understood that this shipment is intended for the "subsidiary coinage" for conversion into halves, quarters, twenty and ten cent pieces.

From the foregoing facts it will be seen that some deduction must be made from the Treasury report of coin, in order to arrive at the true amount of gold in the country. At all events, the total of $92,750,000 will probably more than cover all the gold in the United States and Territories. This is also on the presumption that the $67,750,000 of "coin" reported by the Treasury is actually either gold or silver, and not called bonds—which, it is well known, were a few years ago counted as "coin in the Treasury;" this practice having been ventilated by Treasurer Spinner in one of his reports.

Nor is the prospect for an increased stock of coin in the Treasury very flattering. On the contrary, the customs revenue is falling off as compared with last year. For the first quarter of the fiscal year—which ended October 1—the total customs receipts were $43,768,215, against $46,651,200 in the corresponding three months of 1874, thus showing a decrease of $2,900,000.

NEW YORK, October 14, 1875.

The money market was easy at 3 per cent. prime mercantile paper 5½a7. The customs receipts were $292,000. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $714,000. The clearings were $55,000,000. Bankers bills 478a482. Gold opened at 116⅞, fell off to 116⅝, advanced to 116⅞, and closed at 116⅝. The rates paid for borrowing were ⅛, 3-32, 7-64, 5-64, 1-16, and finally 1-32 per cent. per diem. The Sub-Treasurer made an award of $1,000,000 gold at from 116.05 to 116.56. Governments were firm, in sympathy with gold. The offerings were limited. Railroad bonds were firm and in active demand. Union Pacific firsts sold at 103@103½, sinking funds advanced to 88½, and Central Pacifics to 106½. Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne firsts sold at 113⅞, and Milwaukee & St. Paul consolidated sinking funds at 79. Chicago, Burlington & Quincy 8s advanced to 116, and Chicago & Northwestern consolidated coupon gold bonds to 85½. Michigan Central 7s sold at 102½. Ohio & Mississippi seconds declined to 63⅞, Toledo & Wabash firsts to 81½, and Chicago & Milwaukee firsts to 97½. One lot of $40,000 Cleveland & Pittsburgh consolidated sinking fund brought 108. In State bonds, Tennessee old declined to 49. The other changes were unimportant.

Stocks at the opening were less active, with the courses of prices irregular. The widest fluctuations were in Missouri Pacific, which advanced from 16½ to 18½, fell off to 15⅞, and afterwards recovered to 17¼. The general market fell off ½ to 1 per cent. in early dealings, but later recovered most of the decline.

At the second call the market was quiet and firm. Stocks were firm and higher in the last hour of business, with the principal dealings in Pacific Mail, Western Union, Lake Shore, Northwest and Missouri Pacific. The last named was weaker and declined from 17⅞ to 16⅞. Lake Shore rose to 53⅞, Northwest to 35½, preferred to 49¼, Rock Island to 103, St. Paul to 32⅞, and Ohios to 16½, closing at about the best prices of the day. Western Union recovered from 74 to 74⅞, with the last sales at the higher figure. Pacific Mail rallied from 35½ to 36½. New York Central advanced to 103, and Erie to 16⅞, but the last named reacted ½ per cent. in final dealings. Union Pacific sold at 66⅞a67, and St. Paul preferred at 62a62½. The other changes were slight. The market closed active and strong.

The transactions on the Stock Exchange aggregated 106,000 shares, of which 7,000 were Pacific Mail, 38,000 Western Union, 12,000 Northwest common, 2,300 St. Paul common, 3,600 Erie, 20,000 Lake Shore, 8,300 Ohios, 1,100 Union Pacific, and 11,000 Missouri Pacific.

Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

DAILY REPORT OF PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, October 14, 1875.

The fine weather has imparted a better feeling in commercial circles, although there is no perceptible improvement to report in general business; the outlook at the present writing warrants the prediction, that the hand-to-mouth policy will be pretty closely adhered to during the balance of the year, as there is a very general disposition manifested by those engaged in active business to pursue a conservative course.

APPLES—The receipts continue large, and the supply has commenced to accumulate, but prices are still maintained, ranging from $3a4 per bbl., for fair to prime.

BEANS—Continue in light supply, but as yet there is not much inquiry; quoted in a small way at $2a2,10, for prime new mediums, and $2,15a2,20 for navies.

BUTTER—The market is generally reported slow, except for fine table stock, dull; prime to choice rolls, 27a30; ditto solid packed, 23a25; common to fair, 15a20c. A New York, paper of Wednesday, reports that market as follows: Receipts have run heavy every day since our last, and the market has ridden slowly under them, and with to-day's supply of nearly 8,000 pkgs at once on the top of what had already become stored the market is in a very unsatisfactory condition. A few dealers even as late as 3 P. M. were quoting last week's prices in a retail way for facy, but a variation may be expected to-morrow or before the week advances far. Some of the larger dealers were beginning to shape matters so as to accept the inside range if trade should open with any volume, but there will be in all probability a wider range than we have had for some time. State farmers are generally offering freely at 30c., but buyers have withdrawn, after taking all the market will close with, if indeed all purchases can be made to come out right. Western butter has sold well, but cheaper State will now be up to call off some trade. Western creamery nominal. Shippers have done and are doing a liberal trade in Western. We make some decline in State, remarking that quotations wind up with a very sagging movement.

CHESTNUTS—The receipts continue to increase, and prices in consequence are weak and drooping; we now quote at $5a6 per bu.

CRAMNBERIES—Prime to choice Jersey cultivated $10a11 per bbl.

CHEESE—There is a continued steady demand, and the market is firm but unchanged; prime Ohio Factory, 13a13 1-2c. A New York paper of 13th reports that market as follows: The situation is not a promising one; prices are higher in the country than active trade here warrants, and with a reduced home trade, which has done so much to keep up the extreme, the market cannot remain firm at prices. Receipts are light, and should be while the accumulation of general qualities is pressing. It is thought that 100,000 boxes would not clear the stores. Prime Western factories are wanted.

EGGS—The arrivals continue light, which is owing to the fact that our market continues lower than those in the east, so that regular shippers are giving us a wide berth for the present. Quotations for fresh, may be given at 24a25, while the same kind in New York are quoted at 28, and it costs the western shipper but little more to ship there than here.

FLOUR—The market continues quiet, and devoid of a single new feature worthy of notice. Old winter wheat, $7a7,25; new ditto, $6,50a7; old Spring wheat, $7a7,25; new ditto, $6,50a7, the outside figure for choice Minnesotas. Rye Flour, $5,50a5,75.

GROCERIES—There is a continued fair degree of activity in this grocery trade, although the demand is mainly for small lots to supply immediate reqirements. Coffee as noted in our last report, continues weak, but unchanged; our latest advices from the seaboard report that the jobbing trade sivery limited, and that there is but little inquiry from the west. A Rio dispatch under date of 11th inst., reports as follows: Sales to United States for sixteen days, 44,000 bags; do to Europe, 49,000 bags. Receipts sixteen days, 170,000 bags; stock 140,000 bags. Price 6-900 per kilo; good to prime, 10-100. Exchange, 27⅜; Freights 2s 6d; market steady; Santos, 9-800. Sales United States and Europe, 15,000 bags. Receipts, 30,000 bags. Sugars continue easy but unchanged. New Crop, New Orleans are enroute, but as yet we are not aware of any having reached here.

GRAIN—There is a moderate degree of activity in grain circles, but the markets are devoid of any new or important features deserving of special notice. Our dispatches from Chicago, New York and other points have been pretty much the same for several days past; there is a fair trade reported, but an absence of excitement. The receipts of Wheat continue liberal, and, excepting for good stock the market is slow; new red winter is quotable all the way from $1,25a1,35 for red, and $1,35a1,45 for new white. Old red, of which the offerings are steadily falling off, $1,40a1,45. The Oat market continues quiet and unchanged—sales of Ohio white, on track in sacks, at 42½a43c; mixed quoted at 41a42c on track. Western Oats cannot be laid down here at current rates. Corn has undergone but little change for several days past, and the market is quiet; new Ear quoted at 48a50 on track; old ear 70a71; old shelled, 68a70c on track. Rye is still quoted nominally at 85 a90c.

HAY—The market for Baled continues very dull, with liberal receipts and the supply accumulating; prairie, $14a15; timothy, $18a20. There is very little good sound baled hay in market. Loose is selling from country wagons at $15a20 per ton.

POTATOES—The market continues dull, but prices remain about as last quoted—Peerless and Early Rose, on track at 33a35; sale of two cars Peach Blows reported at 45. Sweets unchanged at $2a3 bbl

PROVISIONS—As will be seen, we have reduced our quotations one cent per pound on Sugar-cured Hams; otherwise, there is but little change. There is a continued fair jobbing demand, and stocks are gradually going down.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, October 14, 1875.

The Crude market opened dull to-day, and prices declined slightly, as compared with yesterday, although it closed firmer; immediate shipment was quoted at $1,55; United certificates quoted at $1,30a1,32⅜. Refined continues quiet, but firm, holders generally refusing to sell at quoted rates, while some of the eastern operators who are short, are still bearing to the best of their ability. Philadelphia delivery quoted at 13⅜; New York, 14; Baltimore, 13⅜—these were the nominal rates to-day.

Barrels continue dull, and prices are lower; city make were reported as having been offered to-day at $1,50.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, October 14, 1875.

ARRIVALS.

Following shows the arrivals each day for the week ending at noon to-day, and, to afford a comparison, we append those of last week also:

CATTLE.

The total receipts for the week ending at noon to-day, were 289 cars, against 465 cars last week, showing a falling off of 176 cars; sales 3,004 head, last week 3,643. Philadelphia buyers bought 45 cars; New York 10 cars; country dealers and butchers 75 cars; local buyers 14 cars, making 144 cars. With such a large falling off in the receipts, the market, as might be expected stiffened up very materially; sellers soon realized that the general position of affairs was in their favor, and they were not slow to take advantage of it. Prices on all grades of buther cattle were advanced 25 cts cwt., but it is to proper to remark in this connection, that the putting up of rates tended to curtail the demand; in other words, the regular eastern buyers did not take as many as they would have done otherwise. Stock Cattle, for which there was an average demand did not advance as much as butcher cattle, but it should be remembered, while the latter declined fully 50 cts. per cwt., during last week and the one preceding that, again while stockers held their own during the time in question. There were but very few Texas Cattle in the market this week; the bulk of those reported were, if we mistake not through consignments, and we will here take occasion to state that good Texans are growing more in favor, and sell better now than common natives. A great many of the Texans now arriving here and going through to the eastern markets have been wintered in some of the western States, and are in much better condition than they were early in the season.

Prime to graded steers, of which the supply this week was very light, may be quoted at 6¼a6 3-4c; so far as we could learn, there was nothing sold above 6¾, and only one car-load at that. The fact is, there is not as much inquiry for really prime cattle as there has been; butchers not only here but elsewhere, are buying more medium cattle, and we understood there were some very good butcher cattle sold this week at 6 cts.

HOGS.

The receipts show a falling off of 81 cars as compared with last week, and with an average demand and a light supply, prices have been advanced ⅜ to ½ a cent per lb.; however, trade has only been moderate—there is no life in the market, and there is no question but the extreme prices now prevailing are keeping down the consumption. We are satisfied that shippers would buy three or four cars where they are now buying one if prices were from 2⅜ to 3c per lb. below current rates; butchers, it is said by those who are in a position to know, can not cut the price of the hog out of the meat, and as long as this continues it is not likely that they will buy any more than they can possibly help. Packers, in view of the fact that they have made no money this last year, it is not likely will start in at anything like current rates, and while, if we are not mistaken, the general position of the market at the present writing, is toward a lower range of prices within the next thirty or sixty days. In regard to hog crop opinions differ; most operators anticipate a liberal supply, but there is a conflict in views as to the time of marketing. The general impression appears to be that the arrivals at the leading packing centres will be much larger during January and February than in November and December, and, if so, prices will rule lower in the latter than the former months.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

The run of sheep was also comparatively light, and mostly common in point of quality, hence while an advance of fully 25c per cwt was established on the medium and best grades, common stock, of which the offerings largely consisted, did not bring any better prices than last week. The fact is, common sheep have been hard to sell for some weeks past, except at very low rates, and we suggest to those who have stock of this character to hold back for the present at least. Good fat sheep, however, were in demand at the advance, and the supply was scarcely equal to the wants of buyers this week. Good stock wethers continue in demand, and sell readily at full prices, but Ewes continue very dull.

THE WOOL TRADE.

New York.

There has been quite a large business during the last few days, and the position of the market greatly improved; the supplies of all descriptions of fine wools are far from being excessive, but no undue firmness or any advance is anticipated, for the reason that it would bring forward the stocks from the interior, which, thrown on the market would leave it in a more weak condition than it was previously. California Wools, however, are an exception, the tone on these being very strong under higher advices from San Francisco. As regards foreign wools, nothing new can be said; business continues quiet, but prices about steady; sales of 31,000 lb X and XX Ohio Fleece at 47 1-2a50c; 10,000 lb Medium at 36c; 5,000 lb Heavy at 35c; 10,000 lb Tub-washed at 52 1-2a57c; 15,000 lb Fine Unwashed Western at 30c; 4,000 lb Combing at 60c; also 70,000 lb X and XX Ohio Fleece, and 20,000 lb Western Combing Unwashed on terms not made public; 5,000 lb California Pulled at 38c; 5,000 lb Georgia at 35c; 26,000 lb Eastern and Western Texas at 26a 30a31c; 30,000 lb Oregon at 31a33c; 50,000 lb Spring Clip California at 21a22a26a28c; the inside figures for slightly burry and the latter for free; 22,000 lb Fall Clip do at 17 1-2a18c; 26,000 lb Scoured at 55a62½c, and 20,000 lbs. lambs at 18a20; also 90 bales Spring clip California and 325 bales Fall do. on private terms. The sales in Foreign wool were light, only embracing 150 bales Australian and a few bales of East India on terms not made public.

PHILADELPHIA.

There has been a decidedly firmer feeling in the market since our last notice, and rather more disposition on the part of the manufacturers to purchase, but the continued low and unremunerative prices realized for some descriptions of manufactured goods tend to restrict operations. Stocks are comparatively light when compared with this time last year, and for fine fleece particularly there is a more confident feeling. Medium and combing wools command full rates. Sales of 400,000 lbs. within the range of the following prices: Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia fleeces—XX and above, 45a47; X, 45a47; half-blood, 50a51; ¼ blood, 46a48. Combing—fine unwashed, 30 a31; medium unwashed, 36a37; washed fleece, 62a65; unwashed, 40a43c. New York Michigan and Wisconsin—XX and above, 44a45; X, 44a45; half-blood, 48a50; quarter-blood, 46a47c.

Wilmington.

L. A. WELSH,
Sergeant Signal Service, U. S. A.

THE stage of water last evening was 5 feet 2 inches, and falling. Clear and pleasant. Business improving.

THE new towboat Dauntless arrived from Brownsville.

THE John L. Rhoads will load here for St. Louis next week.

BOTH the Allegheny and Monongahela were reported falling at head-waters yesterday.

CAPTAIN JAS. A. STUART is piloting the towboat Etna and barges from Cincinnati to this city.

THE Coal Valley and Fair Play departed for Cincinnati on Wednesday, with light tows of coal.

THE new steamer Tensas, just completed, will make her trial trip to-day, from Louisville to New Orleans.

WASH. ROUSE, an old and well known steamboatman, is lying dangerously ill at his residence in St. Louis.

CAPT. HIRAM HAZLETT did not leave St. Louis the other day for Pittsburgh, as stated by a St. Louis exchange.

PILOT WM. GOSNEY left Cincinnati for Blennerhassett on Tuesday, by rail, to bring the Wild Duck up to Pittsburgh.

JOHN H. LAUGHLIN, son of Capt. George Laughlin, was married on Tuesday to Miss Allie, daughter of Captain Campbell, of Rochester, Pa.

THE Mallie Ragon departed for Cincinnati with a very fair trip. On her return she will enter regularly in the Pittsburgh and Wheeling trade.

WE have heard nothing from Capt. Darlington, of the Carrie Brooks, since the election in Ohio. Possibly he can explain the defeat of old William.

MR. J. S. PAULINE, steward of the Exchange, has just returned from Butler Co., Pa., with his family, where he spent several weeks in rusticating.

THE Salt Valley will arrive from Ironton on Sunday, and take her departure, as usual, on Monday at 3 P. M. She is a permanent fixture in the trade.

THE Rover, as will be seen by card, is announced to take her departure for St. Louis to-day, and shippers should bear this in mind and be governed accordingly.

MARSH MCDONALD & CO. have a suit pending against the owners of the Fleetwood for the sinking of a barge, near Sciotaville, in 1873, and are now engaged in taking depositions.

IN the case of McDonald vs. Pittsburgh Insurance, a suit brought to recover insurance, some $9,200, on a barge sunk by the Fearless in the Mississippi, which was decided by the Court below in favor of plaintiff and then carried to the Supreme Court, by the defendant, a decision was rendered yesterday, in which the action of the lower Court was affirmed.

WE learn from our St. Louis exchanges that "in the McMillin suit for infringement on his patent capstan, decided by Judge Treat the other day, the Court has permitted the defendants to continue using their capstans upon giving bond for the royalty, and taking an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States. The appeal has already been taken, and the bond given, so no royalty can be collected in that circuit until the Supreme Court says McMillin is entitled to his patent. There is complaint among steamboatmen that the royalty demanded for the use of the McMillan capstan is exorbitant, and therefore unjust. The patentee demands his royalty on the capstan which has once paid the royalty whenever it is transferred to another hull. It is well known that the machinery of a boat often outlives the boat, and steamboatmen object to paying a second royalty to McMillian for the use of the same capstan, as they would object to paying an engine builder a second time for machinery transferred to a new hull and for which he had once been paid. They have therefore resorted to the court of last appeal."

HOME NEWS.

Still Alive.

The man Debnot, who attempted to commit suicide to prevent arrest, at Alpsville, an account of which we published yesterday, is still living, and it is now thought he will recover.

Killed on the Railroad.

John McLane, a resident of Mercer, aged about thirty years, was struck by the New Castle & Franklin Express, on a branch of the Cleveland Road, near Stoneboro, about seven o'clock last evening, and instantly killed. It is thought that he was intoxicated.

Mrs. Kearney's Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Kearney took place yesterday, in St. Mary's Cemetery. The Poor Board furnished the coffin and hearse, and 'Squire Krehan the grave. The children have been placed in St. Paul's Orphan Asylum, by Terrence Campbell, Esq., of the firm of Campbell, Jones & Co., glass manufacturers of the South Side. He is one of the Directors of the Asylum, and took charge of the children Wednesday evening. They will remain at the Asylum until their father is heard from. It is said the Guardians of the Poor will prosecute the parties who imposed upon Mrs. Kearney.

The Coming Man.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

Although entirely premature in the sense that the next election for Congressman in the Twenty-second District is nearly two years in the future, yet, as it is always wise to look ahead and devise measures for the future, it is not too soon to suggest names for a Republican successor to an accidental Democratic M. C. It is in this view of the subject that we are requested, by a number of his friends, to suggest the name of Colonel Henry B. Hays as one pre-eminently qualified to represent the great industrial interests of the district. He is a gentleman of fine literary culture, of large practical experience largely identified with the coal interests, and equally devoted to the manufacturing and commercial interests of his native county. The constituency of this great city and county might look long and critically for one so altogether fitted for the high position to which it is proposed in due time to advance him.

KNOCKED SENSELESS.

A Laborer Assaulted in Hardscrabble.

Night before last as a laborer named Abram Brieneski, was on his way to his home, on Magee street, in Hardscrabble, he was struck with a stone when near Forbes street on Shingiss, and knocked senseless. He heard steps behind him, and turning suddenly, he received the blow. He staggered, but was able to keep his feet for a moment until he reeled against the bank and fell, where he remained senseless until found by a laborer named George Watson, shortly afterward. Dr. Hackett was called and dressed the wound. It was thought at first that his skull was fractured, but examination revealed only a severe scalp wound, about two inches in length, along the left side of the forehead. The cause of the assault is a mystery, as no attempt was made to rob the man.

BASE BALL.

Accident to Catcher McKelvy and Umpire Douthett—The Oil City Club Defeated.

The Oil City and Braddock base ball clubs played their second game yesterday afternoon on the grounds of the latter. The former were defeated by a score of 21 to 7. In the seventh inning Rus. McKelvy, captain of the B.'s, and catcher, was struck on the nose by a foul ball which, we are informed, almost demolished that organ, and inflicted a terribly severe injury. One of his eyes was almost forced from its socket too, but the damage done to it was not sufficient to cause its loss, though it is thought his face will be sadly disfigured by the hurt visited upon his nose. He was taken to his residence in a carriage. The game was continued by placing Sullivan, of the Xanthas, in McKelvy's stead. P. Douthett, also of the Xanthas, who umpired the game, was struck in the eye by a foul tip which caused nothing more serious than its discoloration.

On Tuesday next the Xanthas go to Meadville, to play the Mutuals, of that place. The day following they play the Oil City's again, and it was the intention to play their third and concluding game with the Braddocks on Thursday, but it is probable that the accident to McKelvy will cause its postponement.

DEATH OF WM. H. BROWN.

Meeting of the Coal Exchange.

On receiving the sad intelligence of the death of Wm. H. Brown, Esq., a meeting of the Coal Exchange was called, and the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Divine Providence to remove from the busy scenes of life, in which he was a conspicuous and leading participant, the late Wm. H. Brown, who was an active promoter of some of the most important business interests of this community.

Resolved, That we regard the demise of our esteemed fellow citizen with sorrow and regret; his removal makes a vacancy in the important operations of our specialty, which must long keep his memory fresh among us; nor can it ever be forgotten that he was one of the earliest pioneers in organizing the system of transportation which utilizes the waters of the western rivers, and diffuses the blessings of cheap transit throughout the extended territory of the South and West.

Resolved, That we, as a body, attend his funeral.

Resolved, That we condole with the relatives of the deceased in their bereavement, and request that the Secretary of this meeting transmit to them a copy of these proceedings.

JOHN F. DRAVO,
J. N. BUNTON,

AMUSEMENTS.

Pittsburgh Opera House.

The charming society play of "Saratoga," which wins success and approval wherever it is produced, was played last night, with Mr. Lewis in the character of Bob Sackett. This role is the very opposite of Perkyn Middlewick, in "Our Boys," but both of them sit equally well upon the shoulders of Mr. Lewis. His Sackett is as good as his Middlewick, and though both are fine personations, the former possesses more of the elements of popularity, at least for this city. "Saratoga" will be repeated this evening.

The sale of seats for the "Two Orphans," which is to be presented next week by the Furbish Company, commences this morning at the box office.

Fifth Avenue Theater.

We regret to announce that this theater closes its doors to the public on Saturday evening, and that Mr. Ryan, the genial, courteous and efficient manager and comedian, who has ever been a favorite in Pittsburgh, retires and proposes seeking elsewhere theatrical "green fields and pastures new." The Fifth Avenue opened very auspiciously in August last. It shone brilliantly for a time, and was apparently destined to meet with eminent success, but, like all establishments which are financially susceptible, it felt the griping hand of hard times, and, following numerous examples, it succumbs, but not to go through a court of bankruptcy. All the members of the company will leave with an extra week's salary in their pockets, and, we trust, with pleasant memories of Pittsburgh. The "Black Hand" will occupy the boards the balance of the week. Messrs. Jones and Wallace have accepted engagements at Ford's Theater, in Baltimore.

Library Hall.

The sale of seats for the performances next week, opening on Tuesday night, of the Juvenile Opera Bouffe Company, commences this morning at Hale's music store, on Smithfield street.

Trimble's Varieties.

The reputation of the performers at this theatre, and the character of their performances, fully justify the patronage they are receiving. The company include the Reynolds Brothers, Minnie Rainforth, J. W. McAndrews, and others, all favorites.

Steamship Arrivals Yesterday.

Dispatches received at Max Schamberg's European Steamship, Exchange and Telegraph Office, at 163 Smithfield street, announce the arrival of the steamer Caspian at Liverpool, the Klopstock at New York, and the City of New York at New York.

The Rising Sun Oyster Crackers

Are just what you will like. Try them. Sold by all grocers.

A JUBILEE DAY.

A Semi-Centennial Celebration—Comparing the Old Times and the New of the Allegheny U. P. Theological Seminary—A Day of Speech-Making, Fraternal Interchanges and Financial Ingatherings.

Yesterday was a day of jubilee among the members of the U. P. Church, the occasion being the semi-centennial of the Allegheny Theological Seminary. The event had been looked forward to for some time, and extensive preparations had been made to secure the success of what the friends of the Seminary desired should mark the commencement of a new era of prosperity in its history. The institution has a strong hold upon the affections of the members of the denomintion in whose interest it is sustained. Its history dates back over for it had its beginning about the year 1820, being established by the Associate Reformed Synod of the West. This Synod was organized in the year 1820, by the churches which had previously constituted the Synod of Sciota, subordinate to the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. Almost immediately after its organization, it sought to provide for the education of candidates for the ministerial office. In 1821 measures were taken to procure a library. In 1822 we find it engaged in devising means for supplying the Church with ministers. In 1824 a committee was appointed to report a plan for securing funds and establishing a seminary. In 1825, it was resolved to establish a Theological Seminary. Pittsburgh was designated as the place in which it was to be located, and Rev. Dr. Joseph Kerr, at that time pastor of St. Clair congregation, in the Presbytery of Monongahela, was unanimously chosen Professor. The Seminary was opened in December, 1825, under the direction of Dr. Kerr, who for four years discharged all the duties pertaining to the different departments of Theological instruction with great ability, commanding the affectionate respect of the students, and the unbounded confidence of the Church. At his suggestion the fund for aiding young men in the prosecution of their Theological studies was founded; and to this fund he contributed from year to year, all or the greater part of his salary of two hundred dollars, which he received as Professor. On the 15th of November, 1829, after a brief illness, Dr. Kerr passed from the Church militant to the Church triumphant. Rev. Mungo Dick, at the request of the Presbytery of Monongahela, conducted the instruction of the students during the session then about to commence. At the meeting of the Synod in 1830, Rev. Dr. Alexander Sharp was elected Professor. He, however, declined the office thus tendered him. Rev. Mr. Dick was then requested by the Synod to continue his services as temporary Professor, which he did during the next session. At a meeting, of the Synod the following year, 1831, this committee recommended Rev. Dr. John T. Pressly, of South Carolina, as a suitable person to fill the Professor's chair. This recommendation was unanimously adopted. The new Professor found thirteen students ready to wait upon his instructions, when he entered upon the discharge of his duties early in January, 1832. Having received a call from the First Associate Reformed congregation of Allegheny, Dr. Pressly, toward the close of the same year, assumed the duties of the postoral office, in connection with those of the Theological instructor. In consequence of this, the exercises of the Seminary were thenceforward conducted in Allegheny City. During the first four sessions subsequent to his election as Professor, the entire charge of the Seminary devolved upon Dr. Pressly alone. He was the senior Professor in the Seminary from that time until his death. In 1843 the Synod established three Professorships—Theology, Biblical Literature and Criticism, and Ecclesiastical History and Church Government. Rev. James L. Dinwiddie, D. D., was appointed the same year to the chair of Biblical Literature and criticism, while the duties connected with the other two departments were discharged by Dr. Pressly. Dr Dinwiddie had not served his third term until he was disqualified by sickness from rendering any further service to the church. The senior Professor discharged all the duties of the institution until the meeting of Synod in 1847, at which time Rev. Alexander D. Clark, D. D., President of Franklin college, New Athens, Ohio, was elected Professor of Biblical Literature and Criticism, and entered upon the discharge of his duties in 1848. In 1851 the Rev. David R. Kerr was chosen to the Professorship of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government, the duties of which he has ever since discharged with marked ability.

IN GOOD QUARTERS.

A short time subsequent to the election of Dr. Kerr, the commodious and comfortable building now occupied by the Seminary was erected under the supervision of a committee of the Presbytery of Monongahela. The funds for this purpose came from a munificent bequest, made by Mr. Thomas Hanna, "an elder who obtained a good report." During the greater part of its previous existence, the exercises of the Seminary were conducted in a room gratuitously furnished by the First church, Allegheny. The memory of this liberal hearted laymen and prince among men is still precious and fragrant wherever the name of the Seminary is known. At a meeting of the Synod held September 27th, 1859, the possession and control of the Seminary was transferred to the First United Presbyterian Synod of the West, which had come into existence as a consequence of the happy union between the Associate and Associate Reformed Presbyterian Churches, consummated the year previous. The new Synod accepted the trust. The Professors then in charge were continued. On August 13, 1870, Rev. Dr. Pressly passed from labor to reward. He died in the seventy-sixth year of his age, having served Christ in a ministry extending over fifty-six years, and having discharged the duties of theological instructor for thirty-eight years. During all this period he had been at the head of the Seminary; a good part of the time sustaining alone the burden of its work, and all the time bearing the chief responsibility, and doing most that gave character and success to the institution. In October, of the same year, Rev. Dr. J. T. Cooper, of Philadelphia, who had been once before elected to a Professorship, but declined—was elected to fill the place made vacant by the death of Dr. Pressly, a position which he now holds.

At the organization of the Seminary, in 1825, the Synod elected three Directors, without limiting the term of office. In 1835 the number was increased to five. In 1848 the Board was enlarged to nine members, three of whom were elected annually, to serve for a term of three years. In 1868, a new constitution was adopted, under which the Board consists of eighteen ministers and nine ruling elders, each Synod electing annually two ministers and one elder, to serve for a term of three years. The Seminary was incorporated by the Legislature of Pennsylvania in 1830, with a Board of five Trustees. In 1868 a new charter was obtained, the number of the trustees being nine, three of whom are elected annually by the directors. Under this charter all the property and funds are held by the corporation.

THE SEMINARY AS IT IS NOW.

The building occupied by the Seminary is situated on the corner of North avenue and Buena Vista street, Allegheny. It is sixty-five feet front, and fifty-five feet deep, built of brick, with cut stone trimmings. On the first floor there are two spacious rooms, one occupied as a lecture room, and the other by the library, with a hall and rooms for the Janitor. On the second floor there is a commodious chapel and an additional lecture room. The library, though not large, numbering about three thousand volumes, is yet select and valuable. The Seminary is supported by annual contributions from the Synods, together with the proceeds of a partial endowment of about $30,000. There are also in addition to the Library Fund, a Young Men's Fund, and a Dormitory Fund. The first is a loan fund, established as already stated, by the first Professor, and largely increased by subsequent donations and bequests; the second is a fund created some years since by a few generous friends of the institution, for the erection of a building to provide lodging rooms for the students. The proceeds of this fund are now used to aid students in maintaining themselves while at the Seminary.

Since the organization of the Seminary, about five hundred ministers have been trained in it for service in the Church. The majority are still living. They are scattered over all parts of our widely extended country, from the Atlantic to the Pacific. They may be found also in the great mission fields of India, China and Egypt. What has been accomplished during the fifty years of its existence for the glory of God and the good of men, will be revealed only when the great harvest of the world shall come.

THE SEMI-CENTENIAL IDEA.

With such a history so full of success and usefulness, the friends of the institution thought it but appropriate that the semi-centennial anniversary of the founding of the institution should not pass without being publicly commemorated. The idea was informall discussed some months ago, and was received with such favor that preparations began at once to be made for the celebration. This first embraced principally correspondence with old members of the alumni, and when it was found that there would be a large attendance, arrangements were set on foot for the hospitable entertainment of the visitors. The churches took this matter in charge, and the chief part of the work voluntary fell to the lot of the ladies They did their work as only they know how to do. The first Presbyterian church, Allegheny, was decided upon as the place for holding the semi-centennial, and yesterday as the time. When the visitors arrived yesterday they were made at home at once by the cordial reception they received. The church had been handsomely decorated up stairs and down—the skill and taste of the florists, Messrs. Bochman & Patterson, being called in to aid in making the decorations perfect. The auditorium of the church was very chastely trimmed. On the pulpit were placed large boquets of rare and fragrant flowers. An arch ran up over the platform, which was covered with evergreen, interleaved with richly tinted autumn flowers. Stretching across the arch, just under the curve was the word "Welcome," in large letters on canvass. Below stretching from the tops of the pillars, ran a gas jet, in which were spelled out the words "Our Guests." On the wall, behind the platform, was a large oil painting of the late venerated pastor of the church, and head of the Seminary for many years, the Rev. Dr. John T. Pressly. The portrait was surmounted with evergreen, wreathed around the picture, and underneath were the words in letters formed of white winter flowers, "Oh, man greatly beloved!" On the wall, at the right of the platform, in evergreen letters, the name of Thomas Hanna was inscribed, forming a semi-circle, underneath which was the Latin motto in white flower, Hilaris Dator," which, translated, means "a cheerful giver." On the other side, in similar style, was the inscription "Joseph Kerr, D. D." and the motto, Tu et filii tui, which, being interpreted, is "Thou and thy sons shall serve me." Dr. Kerr was the first President of the Institution and two of his sons entered the ministry. The whole decoration was as chaste as it was beautiful.

LITERARY.

The guests as they arrived were taken in charge by friends, and were escorted to the church. A programme of literary exercises had been arranged, consisting of speechmaking, distributed through three sessions, extending from half-past ten in the morning until about ten in the evening, with intervals for refreshment at dinner and supper. We have before us a full report of this "feast of reason," but inasmuch as there were about eighteen speeches of considerable length made during the day and space cannot be made for even a fair abstract of the remarks of all the speakers we are compelled to put all on the same footing and furnish merely the programme. Our readers, however, can easily judge from the list of speakers what a rare treat was afforded.

The first service was held in the morning, commencing at half-past ten o'clock. There was a very large audience in attendance, consisting of representatives of both sexes, and from various churches in our vicinity, irrespective of denominational affinities.

Rev. I. T. McClure, D. D., of Wheeling, presided, and after the opening devotional exercises, and a few congratulatory words from the chairman, an address was made by Rev. J. B. Dales, D.D., of Philadelphia, on "Theological Seminaries; their place, and importance as part of the working power of the church." This was followed with an address by the Rev. Dr. John G. Brown, of this city, on "The Origin and History of this Seminary." Recess was then taken for dinner. At two o'clock the second session commenced, with Rev. D. W. Collins, D. D., of this city, presiding. The first subject for the afternoon's discussion was announced to be "The Theological Education for the Times; the Elements of it, and the Best Modes of Imparting It." Addresses were made by the Rev. David Paul, D. D., of New Concord, Ohio, Rev. A. A. Hodge, D. D., (Presbyterian) of Allegheny, and Rev. J. R. W. Sloane, D. D. After singing a part of the 68th Psalm the Rev. W. G. Moorehead proceeded to speak on the theme "The Heart Culture Required as a Qualification for the Sacred Ministry." The Rev. W. J. Reid, D. D., of Pittsburgh, then spoke of the "Fathers of Our Church."

The Rev. J. N. Dick, D. D., spoke on the same subject. The next topic was "Our Deceased Professors." Rev. Dr. B. Waddle spoke of Rev. Joseph Kerr, D. D. It was now half-past five o'clock, and after singing and prayer the audience adjourned to meet at half-past seven o'clock.

GASTRONOMIC.

The visitors and other invited guests then proceeded with but little delay to the lecture room of the church, which had been prepared to receive them. It was handsomely decorated with festoons and evergreen, pendant from the ceiling and hung around the wall. Over the door were the words "A Jubilee shall the fiftieth year be unto you." There were four tables running lengthwise of the room, around which seating accommodations had been prepared for about four hundred guests. It was a banquet prepared under the supervision of the ladies, assisted by that prince of caterers, Mr. Kinder Blair. The company was divided among the tables—each table having a Professor at the head, and some members of the Boards of Trustees and Directors, with members of the Alumni and ssme invited guests not connected with the Seminary. Among the latter were ladies, whose presence gave additional grace to the occasion. The waiters in serving the banqueters were assisted by a number of ladies from the different churches hereabouts. There was no speechmaking or formality, and the good cheer was thus enjoyed without any admixture of a fear of the painful process of pumping up a speech as a sort of pay for the entertainment.

At half-past seven o'clock the Alumni and friends again assembled in the auditorium of the church.

The Rev H. H. Hervey, presided, and after an opening prayer, by Dr. Cooper, introduced the Rev. Dr. Mehard, who continued the addresses on "Our Depatred Professors," the Dr. spoke of Dindwiddie. He was born at Gettysburgh, and graduated at Jefferson College. He studied Theology under the celebrated Dr. John M. Mason. His first settlement was at Mercer and Shenango. He died greatly regretted in 1846.

Rev. Mr. Taggart spoke of the Rev. Mungo Disk, D. D., another old Professor of the Seminary. He classed him as one of the greatest preachers and theologians in the church.

Rev. Alex. Young, D. D., LL. D., spoke of the late Dr. John T. Pressly, and gave a brief but earnest and comprehensive review of the character and services of this great Divine. The Rev. Professor Jeffers, D. D., President of Westminster College, was then introduced, and made the last formal speech of the occasion. He took as his theme: "The Seminary Whose Semi-Centennial we Celebrate; What it has Done, and what we Should do for It." Informal addresses were then made by the Rev. A. G. Wallace, of New Brighton, and the Rev. Dr. John A. Wilson, of Beaver.

Rev. Wm. S. Owens, of Indiana, from the Business Committee, presented a report, stating that letters had been received from Rev. John Wilson, of Morticello, Rev. Dr. McCoy, of Texas, Rev. A. C. Steele, and Rev. David Pressly. He read a few extracts from the letters, and closed by offering for the committee the following

RESOLUTIONS:

With thankfulness for the good providence in which we have been permitted to come together and mingle in the enjoyments of this occasion; with solemn memories of the past, and bright hopes for the future of the Seminary whose semi-centennial we celebrate, and with renewed and deepened impressions of the claims it has upon our affection and support, we hereby resolve;

1. That we acknowledge with gratitude the good hand of God in the founding of this Seminary, in preserving it through many trying vicissitudes, and enabling it to do, during these fifty years, a work of inestimable importance and value to the church.

2. That we rejoice in the awakened interest in the Seminary that is now shown, and in the hope thus warranted of renewed devotion to its interests, and as its Alumni and friends we pledge our hearty co-operation in every effort that may be necessary to strengthen its Faculty and keep it up, in power and facilities, to the demands of the time.

3. That we regard the complete endowment of the Seminary as the first great necessity to be met in making it what we desire it to be, and we do, therefore, heartily approve and commend the measures now taken with that end in view, and will go to our homes and people with the determination to help on this work, by all the influence and effort we can possibly give it.

4. That in completing, as is now proposed, the work of securing a proper endowment it would be but a becoming tribute to the memory of men whose names should be imperyshibly connected with the Seminary, to endow one Professorship in the name of John T. Pressly, who so long presided over it and did so much to make it what it has been; another in the name of Joseph Kerr, its first Professor, and another in the name of Thomas Hanna, its greatest pecuniary benefactor.

5. That in recognition of the early and efficient labors of Dr. John Anderson as a Professor of Theology in this portion of the Church, we recommend that a Professorship be endowed in his name.

6. That our thanks are due and are hereby tendered to the brethren whose addresses have made our meeting so impressive and profitable, and request them to furnish copies for publication.

7. That Drs. D. R. Kerr, A. G. Wallace and J. S. Sands be appointed a committee to publish, in suitable form, the proceedings and addresses of this Semi-Centennial anniversary.

Before the vote was taken on the resolutions some very brief but pointed speeches of a financial bearing were made. They came in the following order as subscriptions to the Endowment Fund of the Seminary: E. Y. Patterson, $1,000; J. P. Hanna, $5,000; Wm. Reid $5,000; Campbell Herron, $3,000; John Dean, $2,000; Mrs. Elizabeth Gordon, $500; Charles Arbuthnot $500; Robert Gilson, of Wheeling, $5,000; Rev. Dr. McClure, of Wheeling, also announced that he could pledge his congregation for $6,000.

As each of these little speeches was made, there was a hearty clapping of the hands, indicating that each was duly appreciated. Altogether there were about $30,000 raised, which makes about $60,000 now secured, leaving $40,000 yet to be secured, to make up the full amount desired.

It was deemed that this was an appropriate time to close, and so after a vote of thanks had been returned to the ladies and the resolutions passed, and a collection taken up, the meeting adjourned, leaving all concerned in the best of humor.

FINALE.

Throughout, the celebration was a great success. It was marked by three distinctive features. There was the speech-making—a flow of eloquence all day long, and a grand rhetorical and intellectual tournament as it were of the great men of the church. Then socially it gave opportunities for a renewal of old acquaintances and the formation of new friendships, for indulging in memories of Auld Lang Syne, and gathering fresh inspiration for the work to come. And lastly, it had a very agreeable financial wind-up. It would be strange if, under all these circumstances, the Semi-Centennial did not long hold a place in the memory of every participant.

COMMON COUNCIL.

W. P. PRICE..............President.
ROBERT DILWORTH..............Clerk.

The members present were Messrs. Bedell, Brown, Burton, Biber, Cochran, Drum, Erwin, Gerber, Gschwend, Golden, Hopf, Hughes, Johnston, Lautner, Moul, McGuire, Nesmith, Sholes, Swindell, Stone, Thompson, Wilson James, Wall, Wilson Robert, Wachob, President Price.

On motion of Mr. BURTON the reading of the minutes of the two previous meetings were dispensed with.

The following petitions, &c., were presented and appropriately referred.

Mr. SHOLES, petition for the remedy of the sewer on Irwin avenue.

Also, resolution directing the ascertainment of the cost of new engine houses for the Hope and Friendship Companies.

Also, petition for and ordinance granting J. M. Hemphill the right to erect a new frame building at the corner of North avenue and Railroad crossing.

Mr. DRUM, resolution authorizing the transfer of $1,500, from Appropriation No. 9, Contingent Fund, to Appropriation No. 17, Health. Adopted.

Mr. JAMES WILSON, resolution for a gas lamp at the corner of Franklin street and McDonough alley.

Mr. BURTON, resolution for a change of the grade of Lacock street, at its intersection with Grantham street.

Mr. MCGUIRE, resolution for a flag stone crossing on the south side of Sandusky street, at its intersection with South Diamond street.

Mr. JOHNSTON, resolution for the extension of the water main on Fulton street, from Pennsylvania avenue to Ward street.

Mr. HOPF, resolution for five gas lamps on the Troy Hill road, in the Seventh ward.

Mr. SMITH, protest of Adam Reineman against the adoption of the report of the viewers on the assessment for the grading and paving of the Troy Hill road.

Mr. BIBER, petition for gas lamps on East street.

Mr. GOLDEN, remonstrance against the opening of Irwin avenue.

Mr. COCHRAN, ordinance fixing the salaries of city officers and employees for 1876.

On motion of Mr. GOLDEN, the resolution, now in Select branch, providing for the leasing of a portion of the Allegheny wharf to Mr. Shallenberger, was recalled.

Mr. MCGUIRE presented a remonstrance from property owners on River avenue, Fourth ward, protesting against the leasing of any part of the Allegheny wharf for a stone yard.

Mr. WACHOB presented the following:

Resolved, By the Select and Common Councils of Allegheny, that a committee of five be appointed, one from Common Counsil and two from Select, to investigate certain rumors now in circulation to the effect that the City Engineers have been receiving large sums of money at different times, from private parties, whilst they have been in the employ of the city, and have been drawing their salary from the Treasury of the same. Also to investigate the general management of said Engineer's office.

The resolution was passed, and Messrs. Wachob, Sholes and Cochran were appointed on behalf of Select branch.

Mr. DRUM subsequently moved that the adoption of the resolution be reconsidered for the reason that a similar one had been referred to the Survey Committee, and is yet before that body. Mr. Wachob explained that they did not take cognizance of the same matters. He alleged that every property owner in his vicinity except one, had paid money to the employes of the City Engineer's office for work done during hours that should have been devoted to the city. He also stated that he was one of the number who had paid them cash for doing private work with municipal instruments. He had been informed, too, that the City Engineer was the Consulting Engineer for the new Point bridge. Mr. Drum withdrew his motion, and Council passed on to the consideration of other business.

Mr. BROWN presented the report of the Gas Committee, which was received and filed, and a resolution accompanying it providing for the erection of gas lamps at various points was adopted.

Mr. LAUTNER submitted the report of the Market Committee, showing the September receipts to be $2,045.32. Received and filed.

Mr. STONE, report of the Ordinance Committee, containing a reference to the bill now before them for the establishment of a fire line in the densely populated part of city. Received and filed.

Mr. COCHRAN, report of the City Property Committee, stating that they had leased the old Columbia engine house, at the corner of Anderson and Lacock streets, to Mr. Bowers for three years for $1,000. Received and filed.

MR. NESMITH, report of the Committee on Street Railways, returning with a negative recommendation, the ordinance granting the Pleasant Valley Passenger Railway Company the right to lay their tracks along Ohio street, from West Diamond street to Union avenue. Received and filed.

The following Street Committee business was acted upon:

Ordinance for a lateral sewer on Virgin alley, from line of property of German National Bank, along Peach alley and Liberty street to the Madison street sewer. Passed.

Ordinance for a lateral sewer on Pasture alley, from Grant street to Allegheny avenue. Laid over for one month.

A lot of business from Select Council was concurred in, but Messrs. Johnston and Wachob objected to the bill in the Controller's report which shows the amount ordered to be paid by the Printing Committee. The former moved that the bills of the GAZETTE, Freiheits Freund, and Mail be excepted. Carried.

Resolution for the transfer of $10,000 from the Contingent Fund to the Street Committee Appropriation. Adopted.

Mr. STONE, petition for a change of grade oo McClure avenue. Referred.

Adjourned.

Rose Ann Cox et al. vs. Patrick Rogus. Error to the Common Pleas of Washington county. Judgement affirmed. Opinion by Williams.

James Deane and Margaret Deane, owners, &c., vs. Samuel C. Martin. Error to the District Court of Philadelphia. Judgment reversed and judgment for the defendants below on the demurrer. Opinion by Williams.

Jacob Sankey et al., executors of John Sankey, deceased, vs. the First National Bank of Williamsburg. Error to the Common Pleas of Union county. Judgment affirmed. Opinion by Williams.

The Commonwealth ex rel. N. Snyder & Co. vs. Mitchell et al. and the city of Pittsburgh. Motion to quash the writ of error to Common Pleas No. 1, of Allegheny. This was the rising mains case that attracted so much attention. Motion granted. Opinion by the Chief Justice.

The cases of Murray and Meyers, convicted of the murder of Gotthold Wahl, a farmer, on the Perrysville road, on the 11th of November, 1874, were argued together yesterday morning by Mr. Moore for the plaintiffs in error, and Col. Bayne for the Commonwealth. The argument was on four assignments of error. The first was that the court below overruled the plea of jurisdiction, the counsel for the prisoners contending that under the Constitution, Judge Sterrett should have presided instead of Judge Ewing; the second that the court erred in overruling the challenge to the array; the third that the Court allowed an amendment to the indictment, changing the date of the alleged murder, from October 11, 1874, to November 11, 1874; the fourth that the Court erred in overruling the challenge for cause as to certain jurors. The assignments which raised the question: "Does the mere fact of unlawful killing, in the perpetration of a robbery, constitute murder in the first degree," were abandoned. With the exception of the testimony of one witness, it was not in evidence that Myers took an active part in the killing. The record in his case presents to the Court this single question: "If Myers had no knowledge of the purpose and intention of his companion, Murray, to use a deadly weapon, and take life, and if his simple purpose was to aid in robbery, and with this view he seized the horses, and held them, and while so doing, his companion, without any agreement whatever between the two, shot and killed Wahl, is Myers guilty of murder in the first degree?" The arguments on both sides were brief.

The case of the city of Pittsburgh et al. vs. James Kelly, being an appeal from the decree of the Common Pleas No. 2, declaring the annexation of a portion of Wilkins township to the city, which constituted the Thirty-seventh ward, illegal, and the ordinance annexing it null and void, was argued. Mr. Hamilton and Mr. Slagle for the city; Mr. Schoyer and Mr. Acheson, contra.

A WORD TO THE WISE IS SUFFICIENT.

The Ne Plus Ultra Grain House of Western Pennsylvania — Messrs Laing & McKallip Inaugurate a New Feature in the Trade.

The Flour and Grain House of Messrs. Laing & McKallip, No. 347 Liberty street, is extensively known as a leading establishment of its class, and the favor with which their system of business has been received by the trade has induced their patronage to grow to an enormous magnitude, making it necessary that they should devise more extended facilities for the accommodation of their numerous patrons, which want has been fully met by the construction of a building of immense proportions, at the corner of Thirty-first street and Allegheny Valley Railroad. This firm, therefore, becomes the pioneer in having a warehouse with track connections, and dealers and shippers need not the logic of argument to prove its advantages to the trade.

Grain, Flour, Feed, &c.

Enterprise and business activity, joined to integrity and fair dealing, are the essential elements of success, and the extensive trade connections of this firm are a verification that they possess these qualities to their full extent. They are dealers in grain, flour, feed, baled hay, cement, lime, and plaster, and to the casual observer the amount of these commodities handled by them seems simply immense. Those who are patrons of this house need no suggestions, but to those who are on the lookout for a reputable, reliable, and advantageous establishment with which to deal in the goods mentioned, we commend Messrs. Laing & McKallip, 347 Liberty street.

Anthracite Coal.

The handling of anthracite and cannel coal is another branch of their business, which receives especial attention. Their trade in this line is immense, both at home and abroad, it being their pride to keep in stock nothing less than the very best quality of Wilkesbarre anthracite. This coal being so much cleaner and so very effective in heating capacity, has become the standard, and is rapidly making its way into general use. Dealers in western cities have but to order this coal from Messrs. Laing & McKallip, in the full assurance that their every requirement will be met to the very letter. Offices: 347 Liberty street and 134 Fifth avenue. Yards: Thirty-first street and A. V. R.R.

HOMEOPATHY.

Papers Presented and Discussed at Yesterday's Session—New Members Admitted—Election of Officers—An Old and Odd Cure for Consumption.

The second and concluding day's session of the Homeopathic State Society commenced at half-past nine o'clock yesterday morning, in the Common Council chamber, City Hall, Vice President Jones in the chair. The proceedings were opened by Dr. B. W. James, who moved that a vote of thanks be tendered Dr. J. H. McClelland for the exceedingly interesting and valuable address delivered by him at Library Hall, on Wednesday evening. The motion was unanimously adopted, and the address was referred to the Publishing Committee.

Dr. J. H. Marsden concluded the reading of his paper on "Foxœmic Puerpural Diseases," and he was followed by Dr. C. P. Seip, who read a paper on "An æsthetics in Midwifery." Both were referred for publication. A discussion upon the papers of the Bureau of Obstetrics was participated in by Drs. B. W. James, E. A. Farrington, Pemberton Dudley and J. H. Marsden.

The following physicians, recommended for membership by the Board of Censors, were elected: Stephen Woods, M. D., Pittsburgh; O. R. Shannon, M. D., Allegheny; B. F. Connell, M. D., Connellsville; J. G. Thompson, M. D., Allegheny; J. S. Crawford, M. D., Pittsburgh; W. H. Kern, M. D., McKeesport.

The Bureau of Climatology reported papers entitled "Climata in the Alleghenies," by J. Wesley Allen, M. D., and "Climatology of Pennsylvania," by B. W. James, M. D. From the Bureau of Surgery the following papers were submitted: "Fistula in Ano," by A. R. Thomas, M. D.; "Chloroform in Surgery," by L. H. Willard, M. D.; "Foreign Bodies in the Air Passages," by Charles H. Thomas, M. D.; "House Maids Knee," by F. A. Rockwith, M. D.; "Two Cases of Transfusion of Blood," by J. H. Buffum, M. D.; "Remarks on the Treatment of Club Foot," by J. H. McClelland, M. D. The papers were all read and referred, after which a number of them were discussed.

The report of the Bureau of Organization, Registration and Statistics was received, including a general report by Dr. M. M. Walker and a list of manuscripts, &c., relating to the early history of homeopathy in Pennsylvania, in possession of the Bureau, by Dr. J. C. Guernsey.

The committee appointed to prepare a minute expressive of the sense of the Society, in view of the death of the wife of President McClatchey, submitted the following, which was unanimously adopted, and a copy ordered to be forwarded to Dr. McClatchy:

WHEREAS, Our much respected President, Dr. R. J. McClatchey, has been overtaken by a Providential affliction in the loss of his beloved wife, just on the eve of this session of the Homœopathic Medical Society of Pennsylvania; therefore,

Resolved, That we, as a Society, tender him our sincere sympathy in his great bereavement.

The Society then adjourned until three o'clock in the afternoon.

Afternoon Session.

The Society met at three o'clock and President Jones called for a report from the Bureau of Miscellaneous Subjects. It was presented by Dr. C. S. Middleton, of Philadelphia, who submitted papers by himself on "Obscurity of Brain Diseases" with a case in point, and "A Case of Chronic Dysentery"; also papers on the "Influence of the Mind on the Fœtus in Utero," by Dr. Stevens, of Scranton. "Constitutions and Constitutional Treatment," by Dr. W. H. Bigler, of Philadelphia, and "Hay Fever" by Dr. J. E. James, of Philadelphia. Dr. Middleton also presented to the Society, as objects of interest and curiosity, a prescription by the famous Dr. Brown Sequard for the cure of epilepsy, and an ancient cure for consumption. The following is a verbatim copy of the latter.

FOR A CONSUMPTION.

Take two pounds of sugar candy and beat into small pieces; the lights of a calves pluck, just killed, (observe that they are quite dry,) and a proportionate quantity of goar stone, according to the age, strength, or constitution of the person, viz: from six to twenty grains. Lay a little of the sugar candy at the bottom of your jar, and then some of the lights cut into small pieces, and so a layer of each until it is about half full, when sprinkle in your goar stone, and then the rest of your sugar candy and lights, as before. Stop the jar close, tie the cork down with a piece of paper, then set it in the oven after the bread is drawn, and let it stand all night, you may know when it's enough by breaking the lights, as all the moisture will be out—drain the surrup, and take a child's spoonful at eight o'clock in the morning and four o'clock in the afternoon.

The Doctor who prescribed this recipe had five guineas and a promise not to divulge it. He said it was so strengthening as to restore the inwards if reduced to the size of a walnut. It is also a great cleanser of the blood. The Doctor being dead and the person likely to die, left this for the good of mankind.

Signed by
JOHN HIGGINS, 1771.

Copied 3d mo. 1st, 1808, by J. S. for his sister, S. Rogers.

The papers and prescriptions were all received and appropriately referred.

The report of the Necrologist, Dr. W. R. Childs, of this city, was read and filed.

Dr. J. K. Lee, of Johnstown, and Dr. D. M. Graham, of Braddocks Fields, were recommended for membership by the Board of Censors and elected.

The unfinished business of the Society, and a quantity of new business, of interest only to the members, was attended to, after which the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Dr. J. E. Jones, of West Chester.

First Vice President—Dr. J. C. Burgher, of Pittsburgh.

Second Vice President—Dr. C. S. Middleton, of Philadelphia.

Recording Secretary—Dr. M. M. Walker, of Germantown.

Corresponding Secretary—Dr. J. C. Guernsey, of Philadelphia.

Treasurer—Dr. J. F. Cooper, of Allegheny.

Orator—Dr. E. A. Farrington, of Philadelphia.

Necrologist—Dr. W. R. Childs, of Pittsburgh.

Censors—Dr. M. Cote, of Pittsburgh, Dr. Friese, of Harrisburg, and Dr. J. H. Marsden, of York Springs.

Drs. Willard, Cote, McClelland and Fulton, of Pittsburgh; James, Farrington and Gause, of Philadelphia; Kern, of McKeesport, and Freise, of Harrisburg, were appointed delegates to the American Institute of Homeopathy, which meets next year at Philadelphia.

On motion of Dr. McClelland, the Chair was instructed to appoint a committee, to be known as the Committee on Legislation, whose duty it shall be to attend to all matters before the Legislature in which the interests of homeopathy are in any way involved.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the City Councils for the use of the chamber, and to the press for full reports of the meetings, as well as to the officers of the Society for the efficient manner in which they had attended to the duties of their poistions, after which the Society adjourned to meet in Harrisburg on the second Wednesday of September, 1876.

The Maintenance of Health.

The maintenance of health is often more difficult than its recovery. Vitiated conditions of the atmosphere, unhealthy occupations, extremes of heat or cold, and constant exposure to rough weather, are all so many provocations of disease. There is but one sure way of effectually guarding the system when thus subjected to influences prejudicial to health, and that is to establish, by judicious tonic and alterative medication, vigor of the body and regularity of its functions The properties of an invigorant and corrective are happily combined in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which, at the same time that it infuses unwonted vitality into the system, overcomes all tendency of the stomach, liver, bowels and urinary organs to deviate from regularity in the discharge of functions upon which the welfare of the entire physical organization is dependent. Health cannot be more effectually maintained than by using the Bitters.

OPEN AGAIN.

Unharmed Goods from the Fire-Damaged Stock at Big No. 13.

The recent Sixth street fire entailed considerable loss to Mr. Tobias, as well as to his insurers. The hose having been laid through his establishment, drenched a large portion of the goods, which, of course, prevents their sale as undamaged, yet really did not harm them in the least. The insurance companies have ordered Mr. Tobias to dispose of the stock at once, at any price, that may be disposed of before the adjustment of his claims against them, and he accordingly offers bargains, both in clothing made to order and ready-made clothing, such have never before been approximated in Western Pennsylvania. He has just received from the East a large and valuable stock of cloths, consisting of English, French and German suitings, together with a great assortment of ready-made clothing, all of the best and latest, and which must now be sold without delay, and without any regard whatever to the original cost or actual value. He has been closed a day or two to put stock in better order, but is open again.

CAUTION.—Parties intending and desiring to avail themselves of this extraordinary opportunity to get clothing cheap should be careful to go to the Big No. 13, and not allow themselves to be imposed on by unscrupulous parties in the vicinity who represent theirs as the establishment above referred to. Be sure of the place, Big 13, Sixth street.

CORRECTION.—Some days ago we published an intimation that Mr. Tobias had recovered $10,000 from the insurance companies, which we now correct. We should have said that the stock was insured for $10,000.
